Imagining Difference Leslie Robertson, 2005 Imagining Difference is an ethnography about historical and contemporary ideas of human difference expressed by residents of Fernie BC a coal mining town transforming into an international ski resort Focusing on diverse experiences of people from the European diaspora Robertson analyzes expressions of difference from the multiple locations of age ethnicity gender class and religion Her starting point is a popular local legend about an indigenous curse cast on the valley and its residents in the nineteenth century Successive interpretations of the story reveal a complicated landscape of memory and silence mapping out official and contested histories social and scientific theories as well as the edicts of political discourse Cursing becomes a metaphor for discursive power resonating in political popular and cultural contexts transmitting ideas of difference across generations and geographies Stories are powerful imaginative resources in the contexts of colonialism war immigration labour strife natural disaster treaty making and globalization This study suggests that while criteria may shift ideas of race and foreignness expressions of regionalism and class and religious identity remain fixed in the social imagination The author draws from folklore media imagery historical records and interviews field notes and verbatim accounts provide readers with a sense of the ethnographic process While situated historically and socially in Fernie BC this work will appeal to those in anthropology women s studies Native studies and history as well as to regional readers and anyone interested in life in resource towns in North America Will to Power

David Mulhall,2011-11-01 This study of British Columbia s most famous missionary Father A G Morice OMI casts new lights on his motives and actions Extraordinarily vain and egotistical Morice was obsessed with gaining power and recognition as a missionary explorer and Indian expert With his native intelligence and boundless energy and determination he built a veritable kingdom for himself in northern B C However his rebellious and erratic behaviour finally led to a conflict with his superiors as David Mulhall points out in this fascinating account of a very atypical Oblate missionary A Name for Himself Joyce Barkhouse,1990-06-30 Twelve months in any place my friend is quite a weary while And seems more like a century when lived on Sable Isle So wrote Thomas Raddall at the age of eighteen not dreaming that many years later Sable Island that hell on earth would provide a romantic background for one of his greatest novels The Nymph and the Lamp Traumatized by the horror of the great Halifax Explosion of 1917 followed in a few months by the death of his father in battle overseas Tom was forced to leave school at the age of fourteen This brief account of his life tells of his early adventures and of how he became one of Canada s most renowned storytellers Train Beyond the Mountains Rick Antonson,2023-04-18

A captivating journey blending memoir history and biography that takes the reader on one of the world s most famous trains and tells of carving the dramatic route it follows while pondering other international railways through the eyes of travellers past and present Rick Antonson has ridden trains in more than thirty five countries but almost everything he thinks he knows about train travel changes when he boards the Rocky Mountaineer with his ten year old grandson Riley As they wind over trestles and through tunnels each mile of track uncovers stories of dynamite and discovery surveyors and schemers explorers and visionaries and the people who helped to build Canada against the odds of geography and politics Surrounded by a wild landscape that sparks imagination fellow passengers recount train travels in other countries get nostalgic for the era of steam locomotives and consider life s unfinished journeys Peppared with spirited dialogue heartrending vignettes and intriguing anecdotes Train Beyond the Mountains is a travelogue with urgency to make your travel dreams happen now As one passenger muses The mistake we make is that we think we have time The Canada Year Book ,1975 The Unexplained Kit Pearson,2008 The Unexplained is an anthology of eighteen shivery short stories and true tales by some of Canada's top authors Among the talented contributors are Kit Pearson Karleen Bradford Janet Lunn Brian Doyle Monica Hughes Paul Yee Tim Wynne Jones Jean Little and Lucy Maud Montgomery Compiled and edited by Janet Lunn this is a wonderfully eerie collection of short stories and anecdotes about strange and unexplained phenomena Perfect for a sleepover or sitting around a campfire in the dark In Good Hands Ellen Easton McLeod,1999-12-20 The Canadian Handicrafts Guild broadened the definition of art and the artist in Canada Linking decorative arts with home arts and handicrafts the Guild consistently showed them together at annual exhibitions at the art gallery in Montreal and formed a permanent collection documenting old and contemporary crafts The Guild women combined creativity and philanthropy voluntarism and an entrepreneurial spirit education and concern with quality in a movement that provided income and recognition to craftspeople and a craft legacy to Canada In Good Hands is alive with the interplay between art and social history and the issues this dialogue raised at the time and those we bring to it now constantly overlap It deals with noblesse oblige and the era's patronizing attitude to cultural difference but shows how the Guild consciously fostered an inclusive national feeling by exhibiting and selling crafts of all Canadians on an equal footing It also draws a much broader perspective of women's roles in shaping our culture than has been the norm in Canadian art history
