related aims The first is to honor Walter H Sokel one of the leading scholars and teachers in the study of German languages and literatures and a well known figure in American academics in general The second aim is to outline the emerging shape of cultural studies and to suggest that Walter Sokel s work especially in the field of intellectual history has played a decisive role in that transition This volume illustrates the process of transformation occurring within literary study The book thus takes a position in the vertiginous debate concerning the purpose of education today Walter H Sokel has been a distinguished teacher and researcher at various American universities including Columbia Stanford and the University of Virginia He has specialized in the study of German intellectual History Expressionism and Franz Kafka
