George Bird Evans Catherine A. Harper, 1999 The complete authorized biography of one of America's premier outdoor essayists and dog breeders This book tells of the lives of George and Kay Evans their life together at Old Hemlock and of the founding and perpetuation of their world famous line of Old Hemlock setters George Bird Evans established a beautiful stylish line of English setter bird dogs In the 1950's he began writing about gunning the uplands over his Old Hemlock setters which became his legacy Over the next four decades Evans wrote for several major sporting magazines and completed 20 books including the classic The Upland Shooting Life Evans continued to write and hunt until his death in 1998 at the age of 91 His passionate and contemplative literary contribution to upland gunning has influenced both writers and hunters for decades This book offers one of the most complete biographies ever written about any of the greats of sporting literature George Bird Evans Catherine Harper, 1998-07-01 The West Virginia Encyclopedia Ken Sullivan, 2006 A Hunter's Road Jim Fergus, 2007-04-01 In an epic season of sport Jim Fergus and his trusty Lab Sweetzer trek the mountains plains prairies forests marshes deltas and deserts of America A Grouse Hunter's Almanac Mark Parman, 2010-09-18 Like that earlier grouse hunter Aldo Leopold Mark Parman takes to the woods when the aspens are smoky gold Here in an evocative almanac that chronicles the early season of the grouse hunt through its end in the snows of January Parman follows his dog through the changing trees and foliage thrills to the sudden flush of beating wings and holds a bird in hand thankful for the meal it will provide Distilling twenty seasons of grouse hunting into these essays he writes of old dogs and gun lust cover and clear cutting climate change companions male and female wildlife art and stumps A Grouse Hunter's Almanac delves into the mind of a hunter exploring the Northwoods with an eye for more than just game Meanderings of a Snake Meadow Editor Paul E. Chase, 2009-11 This is a book of essays about upland hunting experiences bird dogs noteworthy authors who wrote books about upland hunting celebrated entrepreneurs in the shotgun producing industry favorite upland painters whose subjects were dogs and men in the field fine double shotguns a few short stories and several miscellaneous subjects most related to the upland shooting life This book also offers historical environmental philosophical and aesthetical observations of a long time rural landowner A fellow bird hunter Dick Curriden of Greenville Maine also contributed witty and humorous words of a highly respected sportsman in the form of letters written to me over the years The title Meanderings of a Snake Meadow Editor originates from the well known 1925 established Snake Meadow Club Inc located in the towns of Plainfield and Killingly in eastern Connecticut of which I have been quarterly newsletter editor for the past twenty two years This has afforded me the opportunity to write a column or two in every publication These rather brief paragraphs in the newsletters have been expanded and with few exceptions resulted in the essays that comprise this book Sportsman's Library Stephen Bodio, 2013-04-02 A Sportsman's Library The 100 Books that Every Hunter and Fisherman Should Own will consist of 100 short reviews for lack of a better word each one from 300 to 1500 words and illustrated with either the cover of the book or a photo of the book's author. The list will include all the beloved classics but will add plenty of lesser known titles as well. It will range in time from Izaak Walton's 17th century to 21st century tiger poachers in eastern Siberia and geographically from the Catskills to the Keys from England's chalk streams to Jim Corbett's India. It will take pleasure in those books that explain the intricate beauty of the classic salmon fly as well as the astonishing craftsmanship of a Best London double the science of the hunt as well as the hunt's depiction in art. Bird Dog Days, Wingshooting Ways Archibald Rutledge, 2016-07-15. An expanded edition of Rutledge's stories on game bird hunting and devoted canine companions. Archibald Rutledge has long been recognized as one of the finest sporting scribes this country has ever produced. A prolific writer who specialized in stories on nature and hunting over the course of a long and prolific career, Rutledge produced more than fifty books of poetry and prose, held the position of South Carolina's poet laureate for thirty-three years, and garnered numerous honorary degrees and prizes for his writings. In this revised and expanded edition of Bird Dog Days Wingshooting Ways, noted outdoor writer Jim Casada draws together Rutledge's stories on the southern heartland: deer hunting, turkey hunting, and Carolina Christmas hunts and traditions. This collection, first published in 1998, turns to Rutledge's writings on two subjects near and dear to his heart that he understood with an intimacy growing out of a lifetime of experience: upland bird hunting and hunting dogs. Its contents range from delightful tales of quail and grouse hunts to pieces on special dogs and some of their traits. Bird Dog Days Wingshooting Ways also includes a long fictional piece, The Odyssey of Bolio, which shows that Rutledge's literary mastery extended beyond simple tales for outdoorsmen. Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998. De Renne William Harris Bragg, 1999. Much of what is known today of Georgia history was preserved through the diligent efforts of a single family. From Wormsloe, their ancestral plantation near Savannah, the De Rennses built an extraordinary collection of books and manuscripts on the history of the state and the Confederacy, much of which is now housed at the University of Georgia and the Museum of the Confederacy. This book focuses on their efforts in the years 1827 through 1970, conveying the passion and purpose with which they pursued their avocation. William Harris Bragg has mined a vast array of archival sources to present this engaging narrative of the De Renne family. He tells how wealthy bibliophile and philanthropist G. W. J. De Renne and his wife Mary set the precedent for the family's accumulation of historic material; how their son established the Wymberley Jones De Renne Georgia Library that bears his name; and how his children in turn expanded upon that tradition. The De Rennses also printed limited editions of primary historical materials, beginning with the series known as the Wormsloe Quartos. Bragg's account of three generations of the De Renne family vividly records their achievements as it reconstructs their life at Wormsloe and follows them in their travels around the world. It provides glimpses into the dynamics and behavior of one of Georgia's oldest and most prominent families and the evolution of the southern aristocracy. The book draws on newly available material to expand significantly on Ellis Merton Coulter's 1955 work Wormsloe and provides the most complete account to date of the De Rennses. Beyond the story of the De Renne family, Bragg

also reveals much about the history of collecting and of the antiquarian book trade as well as of the evolution of Georgia historical documentation Appendix material includes genealogical tables and lists of collections and publications making De Renne Three Generations of a Georgia Family an invaluable source for all scholars and aficionados of southern history

With Respect for Nature J. Claude Evans, 2012-02-01 We eat inevitably at the expense of other living creatures How can we take the lives of plants and animals while maintaining a proper respect for both ecosystems and the individuals who live in them including ourselves In this book philosopher J Claude Evans challenges much of the accepted wisdom in environmental ethics and argues that human participation in the natural cycles of life and death can have positive moral value With a guide for the nonphilosophical reader and set against the background of careful and penetrating critiques of Albert Schweitzer s principle of reverence for life and Paul Taylor s philosophy of respect for nature Evans uses hunting and catch and release fishing as test cases in calling for a robust sense of membership in the natural world The result is an approachable existential philosophy that emphasizes the positive value of human involvement in natural processes in which life and death giving and receiving self and other are intertwined

True Companions Chris Madson, 2023-10-16 This collection of essays celebrates the field dogs Chris Madson has lived with and loved over a lifetime There are stories of choosing pups and the trials of the early years stories of time in wild places across North America in pursuit of pheasants sharptails prairie chickens blue grouse bobwhite and Gambel s quail and stories of the bond that comes from spending years with these special companions Madson writes with affection and humor as he remembers with a smile and a lump in the throat what these dogs have meant to him in the field at home and in his heart
