that period by four enduring writers Alfred Lord Tennyson Matthew Arnold William Morris and Algernon Charles Swinburne While other works have looked at Arthurian legend in light of nineteenth century social conditions this volume focuses on how these poets approached love and death in their works and how the legend of Arthur shaped their vision An introductory chapter traces Arthurian legend from its inception The chapters that follow are each devoted to a particular author s use of Arthurian material in an exploration of love and death For Tennyson love leads to trust and when trust is shattered death soon follows Arnold on the other hand advocates moderation so that the loss of a loved one produces neither debilitating agony nor only a mild melancholy Morris concentrates on the differences between physical and spiritual love while Swinburne presents a world tormented by love and in which death is the only release
