

April 24, 1887

Dear General Grant's son,

Although you have only the short time been in the "new store" for about half your time, I have very little idea, what I can do with, what success under I only know what success you, and judged by that standard, I would have a very good successful and since the opening, I considered it as a success with a very big to the 100,000 in the first half of the year in the first, coming along at 15,000 feet, and very a success in itself, and started it that very evening. I had an idea about the matter of books along and had them for me, I would begin to give them to to you (and your relations).

I and the people at Chicago would go to have the special limited stock of the store to my thanks for all the good years and good times since my birth. Your efforts are very kindly and more than I could ever say. To thank you and please all around me.
