Gerard Bhengu A Retrospective Exhibition 1910-1990:

Colonial Architecture and Urbanism in Africa Fassil Demissie, 2016-12-05 Colonial architecture and urbanism carved its way through space ordering and classifying the built environment while projecting the authority of European powers across Africa in the name of science and progress The built urban fabric left by colonial powers attests to its lingering impacts in shaping the present and the future trajectory of postcolonial cities in Africa Colonial Architecture and Urbanism explores the intersection between architecture and urbanism as discursive cultural projects in Africa Like other colonial institutions such as the courts police prisons and schools that were crucial in establishing and maintaining political domination colonial architecture and urbanism played a pivotal role in shaping the spatial and social structures of African cities during the 19th and 20th centuries Indeed it is the cultural destination of colonial architecture and urbanism and the connection between them and colonialism that the volume seeks to critically address The contributions drawn from different interdisciplinary fields map the historical processes of colonial architecture and urbanism and bring into sharp focus the dynamic conditions in which colonial states officials architects planners medical doctors and missionaries mutually constructed a hierarchical and exclusionary built environment that served the wider colonial project in Africa

Land and Lives Elza Miles, 1997 Land and Lives is the story of pioneer Black artists born in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries up to 1930 in a pre industrial southern Africa This book is divided into two sections Section One Breaking Ground consists of three chapters and looks at the work of those artists who had very little or no schooling in art making but who expressed themselves adequately in drawings paintings sculptures and environmental works of art Section Two Emerging Independence examines the art and lives of those artists who received adequate art training and who had access to fellow artists of professional standing as well as art galleries and books Whereas the African artist always gives the recognition to the older white artists from whose knowledge he benefits the opposite has not been documented
