Gerettet Vor Dem Holocaust Menschen Die Halfen:

Altruistic Personality Samuel P. Oliner, 1992-04-01 An enlightening and powerful exploration of those who risked their lives to help others during the Holocaust and those who did not and what we must do to ensure that such a tragedy never occurs again Why during the Holocaust did some ordinary people risk their lives and the lives of their families to help others even total strangers while others stood passively by Samuel Oliner a Holocaust survivor who has interviewed more than seven hundred European rescuers and nonrescuers provides some surprising answers in this compelling work Samuel Oliver delves into the profound acts of altruism that emerged during one of history's darkest periods Each interview provides a unique insight into the types of personalities that answer a call to action and those that do not By comparing these rescuers with bystanders he provides a nuanced understanding of what drives people to act with extraordinary compassion or to remain passive in the face of evil Offering both a historical perspective and a roadmap for a more compassionate future Altruistic Personality is not just a historical account it is a call to action and a beacon for moral education Relevant when it was first published and even more relevant today Oliver argues that by understanding and fostering the traits of altruism we can prevent future atrocities and bring out the better aspects of humanity

It presents some early conceptualizations as well as retrospectives from today's point of view. Moreover it deals with a series of grand themes which demonstrate the variety of women's and gender history: veritable and controversial multiple stories. Natalie Zemon Davis These include the early modern Querelle des femmes, the rise of the new concept of women's emancipation in Germany through the 19th century, the national and transnational paths to women's citizenship, gender dimensions of the Nazi racial state and of the democratic welfare states. The volume combines social, political and intellectual history, national, comparative and transnational history, European and extra-European history. Some chapters were written specifically for this purpose; others appear here for the first time in German and some are reprinted in view of their impact on the development of the field.
