Gerhard Richter Benjamin H.D. Buchloh, 2003 The Artwork of Gerhard Richter Darryn Ansted, 2017-07-05 By uniquely treating Gerhard Richter s entire oeuvre as a single subject Darryn Ansted combines research into Richter s first art career as a socialist realist with study of his subsequent decisions as a significant contemporary artist Analysis of Richter s East German murals early work lesser known paintings and destroyed and unfinished pieces buttress this major re evaluation of Richter s other well known but little understood paintings By placing the reader in the artist s studio and examining not only the paintings but the fraught and surprising decisions behind their production Richter s methodology is deftly revealed here as one of profound yet troubled reflection on the shifting identity culture and ideology of his period This rethinking of Richter s oeuvre is informed by salient analyses of influential theorists ranging from Theodor Adorno to Slavoj i ek as throughout meticulous visual analysis of Richter s changing aesthetic strategies shows how he persistently attempts to retrace the border between an objective reality structured by ideology and his subjective experience as a contemporary painter in the studio Its innovative combination of historical accuracy philosophical depth and astute visual analysis will make this an indispensable guide for both new audiences and established scholars of Richter s painting Eight Gray 2002 Gerhard Richter, 2002 In his investigations of the nature of the constructed image and the perception of truth versus fiction Gerhard Richter one of the most influential artists of the 20th century has worked in numerous styles and playfully but astutely questioned our expectations of both photography and painting Expanding on his study of the nature of looking Richter has also experimented with windows mirrors and the frame throughout his career This series of eight gray mirrored panels created on the occasion of a commission from the Deutsche Guggenheim Berlin is part of the particular aspect of his oeuvre focused on in Eight Gray the importance of the Mirror series projects in glass gray monochromes and related works More than 50 images of drawings and other works dating from 1965 to the present as well as studies for the Berlin installation are illustrated alongside an essay by Richter expert Benjamin H D Buchloh and a focused bibliography No other

Flesh Kaja Silverman, 2009-10-28 What is a woman What is a man How do they and how should they relate to each other Does our yearning for wholeness refer to something real and if there is a Whole what is it and why do we feel so estranged from it For centuries now art and literature have increasingly valorized uniqueness and self sufficiency The theoreticians who loom so large within contemporary thought also privilege difference over similarity Silverman reminds us that this is but half the story and a dangerous half at that for if we are all individuals we are doomed to be rivals and enemies A much older story one that prevailed through the early modern era held that likeness or resemblance was what organized the universe and that everything emerges out of the same flesh Silverman shows that analogy so discredited by much of twentieth century thought offers a much more promising view of human relations In the West the emblematic story of turning away is that of Orpheus and Eurydice and the heroes of Silverman's sweeping new reading of nineteenth and twentieth century culture the modern heirs to the old analogical view of the world also gravitate to this myth They embrace the correspondences that bind Orpheus to Eurydice and acknowledge their kinship with others past and present The first half of this book assembles a cast of characters not usually brought together Friedrich Nietzsche Sigmund Freud Marcel Proust Lou Andras Salom Romain Rolland Rainer Maria Rilke Wilhelm Jensen and Paula Modersohn Becker The second half is devoted to three contemporary artists whose works we see in a moving new light Terrence Malick James Coleman and Gerhard Richter The

This book explores Hegel's response to the French Revolutionary Terror and its impact on Germany Like many of his contemporaries Hegel was struck by the seeming parallel between the political upheaval in France and the upheaval in German philosophy inaugurated by the Protestant Reformation and brought to a climax by German Idealism Many thinkers reasoned that a political revolution would be unnecessary in Germany because this intellectual revolution had preempted it Having already been through its own cataclysm Germany would be able to extract the energy of the Revolution and channel its radicalism into thought Hegel comes close to making such an argument too But he also offers a powerful analysis of how this kind of secondhand history gets generated in the first place and shows what is at stake This is what makes him uniquely interesting among his contemporaries he demonstrates how a fantasy can be simultaneously deconstructed and enjoyed Mourning Sickness provides a new reading of Hegel in the light of contemporary theories of historical trauma It explores the ways in which major historical events are experienced vicariously and the fantasies we use to make sense of them Comay brings Hegel into relation with the most burning contemporary discussions around catastrophe witness memory and the role of culture in shaping political experience Gerhard Richter, Editions 1965-2004 Gerhard Richter,2004 Compiled through intensive research over a period of many years by art historian Hubertus Butin Richter s former assistant this collection of full color and black and white illustrations is accompanied by basic texts that shed new light on the significance of the German artist s work Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities Monica Manolescu,2018-10-03 Cartographies of New York and Other Postwar American Cities Art Literature and Urban Spaces explores phenomena of urban mapping in the discourses and strategies of a variety of postwar artists and practitioners of space Allan Kaprow Claes Oldenburg Vito Acconci Gordon Matta Clark Robert Smithson Rebecca Solnit Matthew Buckingham contemporary Situationist projects The distinctive approach of the book highlights the interplay between texts and site oriented practices which have often been treated separately in critical discussions Monica Manolescu considers spatial investigations that engage with the historical and social conditions of the urban environment and reflect on its mediated nature Cartographic procedures that involve walking and surveying are interpreted as unsettling and subversive possibilities of representing and navigating the postwar American city The book posits mapping as a critical nexus that opens up new ways of studying some of the most important postwar artistic engagements with New York and other American cities Abstraction and the Holocaust Mark Godfrey,2007-01-01 Mark Godfrey looks closely at a series of American art and architectural projects that respond to the memory of the Holocaust He investigates how abstract artists and architects have negotiated Holocaust memory without representing the Holocaust figuratively or symbolically Unconsolable Contemporary Paul Rabinow,2017-10-19 In Unconsolable Contemporary Paul Rabinow continues his explorations of a philosophic anthropology of the contemporary Defining the contemporary as a moving ratio in which the modern becomes historical Rabinow shows how an anthropological ethos of the contemporary can be realized by drawing on the work of art historians cultural critics social theorists and others thereby inventing a methodology he calls anthropological assemblage He focuses on the work and persona of German painter Gerhard Richter demonstrating how reflecting on Richter s work provides rich insights into the practices and stylization of what following Aby Warburg one might call the afterlife of the modern Rabinow opens with analyses of Richter s recent Birkenau exhibit both the artwork and its critical framing He then chronicles Richter s experiments in image making as well as his subtle inclusion of art historical and critical discourses about the modern This Rabinow contends enables Richter to signal his awareness of the stakes of such theorizing while refusing the positioning of his work by modernist critical theorists In this innovative work Rabinow elucidates the ways meaning is created within the contemporary Material Imagination in Architecture David Dernie,Jacopo Gaspari,2016-07-07 Material Imagination in Architecture draws on history and the visual arts and contemporary architecture to explore this popular theme in architectural practice and education In the context of a discipline increasingly driven by digital production this text explores architecture and making and the diverse influences on the material reality of architectural form it argues that the crafts fabrication and assemblage of its making remain vital elements of contemporary architectural language This broad ranging text bridges the gap between a technical or otherwise fragmentary knowledge of materials of the specialist and the tacit or instinctive understanding of materials that the artist sculptor or architect may have It identifies key material themes pertinent to contemporary architectural debate and develops a discourse about future practice that is framed by environmental imperatives and grounded in a historical understanding of the meaning and use of materials Material iconology in architecture is a well established tradition and this book draws on that background to investigate the possibilities and limits of using materials in contemporary design to communicate the themes and contexts of an architectural project a material s relationship to context and to the history of practices that belong to the traditions of making buildings Each theme is explored in case studies from twelve countries around the world including the UK USA Spain Italy Germany Australia and China

Surface Giuliana Bruno, 2014-06-09 What is the place of materiality the expression or condition of physical substance in our visual age of rapidly changing materials and media How is it fashioned in the arts or manifested in virtual forms In Surface cultural critic and theorist Giuliana Bruno deftly explores these questions seeking to understand materiality in the contemporary world Arguing that materiality is not a question of the materials themselves but rather the substance of material relations Bruno investigates the space of those relations examining how they appear on the surface of different media on film and video screens in gallery installations or on the skins of buildings and people The object of visual studies she contends goes well beyond the image and engages the surface as a place of contact between people and art objects As Bruno threads through these surface encounters she unveils the fabrics of the visual the textural qualities of works of art whether manifested on canvas wall or screen Illuminating the modern surface condition she notes how fa ades are becoming virtual screens and the art of projection is reinvented on gallery walls She traverses the light spaces of artists Robert Irwin James Turrell Tacita Dean and Anthony McCall touches on the textured surfaces of Isaac Julien s and Wong Kar wai s filmic screens and travels across the surface materiality in the architectural practices of Diller Scofidio Renfro and Herzog de Meuron to the art of Doris Salcedo and Rachel Whiteread where the surface tension of media becomes concrete In performing these critical operations on the surface she articulates it as a site in which different forms of mediation memory and transformation can take place Surveying object relations across art architecture fashion design film and new media Surface is a magisterial account of contemporary visual culture

Art, Death and Lacanian Psychoanalysis
Efrat Biberman, Shirley Sharon-Zisser, 2017-09-18

Art Death and Lacanian Psychoanalysis examines the relationship between art and death from the perspective of Lacanian psychoanalysis It takes a unique approach to the topic by making explicit reference to the death drive as manifest in theories of art and in artworks Freud s treatment of death focuses not on the moment of biological extinction but on the recurrent moments in life which he called the death drive or the compulsion to repeat the return precisely of what is most unbearable for the subject Surprisingly in some of its manifestations this painful repetition turns out to be invigorating It is this invigorating repetition that is the main concern of this book which demonstrates the presence of its manifestations in painting and literature and in the theoretical discourse concerning them from the dawn of Western culture to the present After unfolding the psychoanalytical and philosophical underpinnings for the return of the death drive as invigorating repetition in the sphere of the arts the authors examine various aspects of this repetition through the works of Gerhard Richter Jeff Wall and contemporary Israeli artists Deganit Berest and Yitzhak Livneh as well as through the writings of Virginia Woolf and James Joyce First to articulate the stimulating aspect of the death drive in its relation to the arts and the conception of art as a varied repetition beyond a limit Art Death and Lacanian Psychoanalysis will be indispensable to psychoanalysts scholars of art theory and aesthetics and those studying at the intersection of art and psychoanalysis
