German Half Tracked Vehicles Of Wwii:

German Military Vehicles of World War II Jean-Denis G.G. Lepage, 2014-11-18 This volume presents a cross section of the most common transport vehicles produced and used by the German army Tanks plus auxiliary vehicles such as cars motorcycles vans ambulances trucks and tractors made it possible for the troops to keep moving These lightly armored or unarmored vehicles aka soft skins operated behind the front lines maintaining supply lines connecting armies with their home bases and ultimately determining the outcome of battle Beginning with the development of military vehicles in the early 1930s this volume discusses the ways in which this new technology influenced and to some extent facilitated Hitler's program of rearmament Nomenclature standard equipment camouflage and the combat roles of the various vehicles are thoroughly examined Individual vehicle types are arranged and discussed by the following classifications cars and motorcycles trucks and tractors half tracks and wheeled combat vehicles Accompanied by well researched detailed line drawings each section deals with a number of individual vehicles describing their design manufacture and specific use

World War II Trucks and Tanks John Norris, 2012-09-01 Many thousands of different types of vehicles were used by the armies during the Second World War for various roles including the fighting vehicles such as armoured cars and tanks Today these are very popular with enthusiasts who restore these historic vehicles to their pristine state and attend specialist gatherings around the UK Europe and the USA This book explores original and reconstructed military vehicles from British US Russian Italian and German forces using stunning colour photographs It also provides a detailed history of each vehicle's development and use in the war plus a wealth of technical information and rare internal shots The range of vehicles includes trucks ambulances half tracks motorcycles bulldozers armoured cars and of course the impressive range of tanks from tankettes to the fearsome German Tiger Some vehicles are so rare that examples have been recreated using designs of the era and together with the original vehicles their fascinating wartime experiences are revealed From the Moto Guzzi tricycle to the Schwimmwagen the T 34 to the Austin ambulance this is the perfect book for recreating restoring and exploring the history of these classic military vehicles

American Tanks & AFVs of World War II Michael Green, 2014-07-20 A comprehensive highly illustrated study of US tanks and other armoured vehicles used in World War II The entry of the US into World War II provided the Allies with the industrial might to finally take the war to German and Japanese forces across the world Central to this was the focus of the American military industrial complex on the manufacture of tanks and armoured fighting vehicles Between 1939 and 1945 88 140 tanks and 18 620 other armored vehicles were built almost twice the number that Germany and Great Britain combined were able to supply In this lavishly illustrated volume armour expert Michael Green examines the dizzying array of machinery fielded by the US Army from the famed M4 Sherman M3 Stuart and M3 Lee through to the half tracks armored cars self propelled artillery tank destroyers armored recovery vehicles and tracked landing vehicles that provided the armoured fist that the Allies needed to break Axis resistance in Europe and the Pacific Publishing in paperback for the first time and packed with historical and contemporary colour photography this encyclopedic new study details the design development and construction of these vehicles their deployment in battle and the impact that they had on the outcome of the war German Half-tracked Vehicles of World War 2 John Milsom,1975 A clash of military cultures German & French... , German Half-Tracked Vehicles Of World War 2 J.
