Feminism and the Power of Love Adriana García-Andrade, Lena Gunnarsson, Anna Jónasdóttir, 2018-04-17 The power of love has become a renewed matter of feminist and non feminist attention in the 21st century's theory debates What is this power Is it a form of domination Or is it a liberating force in our contemporary societies Within Feminism and the Power of Love lies the central argument that although love is a crucial site of gendered power asymmetries it is also a vital source of human empowerment that we cannot live without Instead of emphasizing either or this enlightening title puts the dualities and contradictions of love center stage Indeed by offering various theoretical perspectives on what makes love such a central value and motivator for people this title will increase one's understanding as to why love can keep people in its grip even when practiced in ways that deplete and oppress In light of such analyses the contributions within Feminism and the Power of Love present new perspectives on the conditions and characteristics of non oppressive mutually enhancing ways of loving Bridging the gap between Feminist Affect Studies and Feminist Love Studies this book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students including postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as women s and gender studies sociology political science philosophy cultural studies and sexuality studies

Cultural Activism Begüm Özden Firat,Aylin Kuryel Aylin Kuryel,2011-03 This volume addresses contemporary activist practices that aim to interrupt and reorient politics as well as culture The specific tactics analyzed here are diverse ranging from culture jamming sousveillance media hoaxing adbusting subvertising street art to hacktivism billboard liberation and urban guerilla to name but a few Though indebted to the artistic and political movements of the past this form of activism brings a novel dimension to public protest with its insistence on humor playfulness and confusion This book attempts to grasp both the old and new aspects of contemporary activist practices as well as their common characteristics and internal varieties It attempts to open up space for the acknowledgement of the ways in which contemporary capitalism affects all our lives and for the reflection on possible modes of struggling with it It focuses on the possibilities that different activist tactics enable the ways in which those may be innovative or destructive as well as on their complications and dilemmas The encounter between the insights of political social and critical theory on the one hand and activist visions and struggles on the other is urgent and appealing The essays collected here all explore such a confrontational collaboration testing its limits and productiveness in theory as well as in practice In a mutually beneficial relationship theoretical concepts are rethought through activist practices while those activist practices are developed with the help of the insights of critical theory This volume brings scholars and activists together in the hope of establishing a productive dialogue between the theorizations of the intricacies of our times and the subversive practices that deal with them

Gender Inequalities, Households and the Production of Well-Being in Modern Europe Tindara Addabbo,Marie-Pierre Arrizabalaga,Alastair Owens,2016-04-22 Feminist scholars have long pointed out the relevance of the unpaid work that goes on within European households in sustaining the well being of the continent's populations. However, care work and domestic labour continue to be largely unremunerated and unequally distributed by gender. This unique volume of interdisciplinary essays casts new light on the roles that households play in securing the well being of individuals and families, uncovering the processes of bargaining and accommodation and conflict and compromise that underpin them. Contributors put gender at the centre of their analyses, demonstrating the uneven experiences of men and women as both providers and receivers of welfare in European households in both the past and the present. As European states grapple with changing family forms, a growing population of dependent people, increased participation of women in labour markets and a profound shift in the nature and organisation of work, this book makes a timely contribution to our understanding of the critical role played by households in mediating processes of economic and social change. It offers new challenges to scholars, researchers and policy makers eager to address gender inequalities and enhance well being. This book is the second of four volumes being published as part of Ashgate's Gender and Well Being series that arise from a programme of international symposia funded by the European Science Foundation under the auspices of COST European Cooperation in the field of Scientific and Technical Research.

How to Read Economic News Henry Silke, Fergal Quinn, Maria Rieder, 2023-08-31 Closely examining how the news media reports economic and financial matters, this book equips students with solid methodological skills for reading and interpreting the news alongside a toolkit for best practice as an economic journalist. How to Read Economic News combines theory and practice to explore the discourse surrounding economics in the mass media and how this specialised form of reporting can be improved. Beginning by introducing major concepts such as financialised economic reporting, media amnesia and loss of trust, the book goes on to help students to interpret, understand and analyse existing news discourse and to identify subtle biases in news reports stemming from hegemonic belief systems. The final section puts this analytical knowledge into practice, providing students with methods for the critical production of news and covering such skills as identifying newsworthiness, story sourcing, achieving clarity and using complex datasets in news stories. This is a key text for students and academics in the fields of financial journalism and critical discourse analysis who wish to approach the subject with a critical eye.
