Cultural Identity and Postmodern Writing Theo d'. Haen, Pieter Vermeulen, 2006 This volume seeks to ascertain the relationship obtaining between the specific form postmodernism assumes in a given culture and the national narrative in which that culture traditionally recognizes itself Theo D haen provides a general introduction to the issue of cultural identity and postmodern writing Jos Joosten and Thomas Vaessens take a look at Dutch literature and particular Dutch poetry in relation to postmodernism Robert Haak and Andrea Kunne do the same with regard to respectively German and Austrian literature while Roel Daamen turns to Scottish literature Patricia Krus discusses postmodernism in relation to Caribbean literature and Kristian van Haesendonck and Nanne Timmer turn their attention to Puerto Rican and Cuban literature while Adriana Churampi deals with Peruvian literature Finally Markha Valenta investigates the roots of the postmodernism debate in the United States Luise Gottsched the Translator Hilary Brown, 2012 Critics have paid increasing attention to the oeuvre of Luise Gottsched 1713-62 Germany's first prominent woman of letters but have neglected her lifelong work of translation which encompassed over fifty volumes and an extraordinary range from drama and poetry to philosophy history archeology even theoretical physics This first comprehensive overview of Gottsched's translations places them in the context of eighteenth century intellectual literary and cultural history showing that they were part of an ambitious progressive program undertaken with her famous husband to shape German culture during the Enlightenment In doing so it casts Gottsched and her work in an entirely new light Including chapters on all the main subject areas and genres from which Gottsched translated it also explores the relationship between her translations and her original works demonstrating that translation was central to her oeuvre A bibliography of Gottsched s translations and source texts concludes the volume

Positivism and Imagination Catherine LeGouis,1997 In this book Catherine LeGouis examines the work of three nineteenth century positivist critics each of whom struggled to overcome the contradictions of attempting to separate esthetic psychological and sociological concerns from individual subjectivity These positivists staunch believers in the authority of scientific reason inspired by Auguste Comte J S Mill and Hippolyte Taine attempted to turn literary criticism into an exact science that would observe and explain not only the social context of literature but also its esthetics without recourse to subjectivity based on individual reactions
