Ideas and Cultural Margins in Early Modern Germany Marjorie Elizabeth Plummer,2016-12-14 While the assumption of a sharp distinction between learned culture and lay society has been broadly challenged over the past three decades the question of how ideas moved and were received and transformed by diverse individuals and groups stands as a continuing challenge to social and intellectual historians especially with the emergence and integration of the methodologies of cultural history This collection of essays influenced by the scholarship of H C Erik Midelfort explores the new methodologies of cultural transmission in the context of early modern Germany Bringing together articles by European and North American scholars this volume presents studies ranging from analyses of individual

worldviews and actions influenced by classical and contemporary intellectual history to examinations of how ideas of the Reformation and Scientific Revolution found their way into the everyday lives of Germans of all classes Other essays examine the ways in which individual thinkers appropriated classical medieval and contemporary ideas of service in new contexts discuss the means by which groups delineated social intellectual and religious boundaries explore efforts to control the circulation of information and investigate the ways in which shifting or conflicting ideas and perceptions were played out in the daily lives of persons families and communities By examining the ways in which people expected ideas to influence others and the unexpected ways the ideas really spread the volume as a whole adds significant features to our conceptual map of life in early modern Europe

Wilhelm von Bode and the American Art Market Michaela Watrelot, 2023-12-19 Based on an extensive and very meticulous study of different archives and the evaluation of original previously unpublished archival material this book highlights the key aspects and trends of the European and American art markets in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries In particular the book focuses on how these markets influenced each other from the viewpoint of one of the most prominent museum directors of this period Wilhelm von Bode 1845 1929 Given the complexity of the topic the book is structured into two parts The first part focuses on Bode's interactions with the German banker and dedicated art collector based in Paris Rudolphe Kann 1845 1905 The second part follows the sale of the Kann Collection to the dealer Joseph Duveen and follows on the relationship between Bode Duveen and the American collectors The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies and the art market

Flemish Paintings of the Seventeenth Century Arthur K. Wheelock, 2005 This catalogue of the Gallery's remarkable collection of Flemish paintings offers new information about each of the individual works Stylistic characteristics of the paintings have been analyzed historical circumstances related to their creation have been assessed and their provenances have been reexamined A number of the paintings have undergone conservation treatment while the technical characteristics of other works have been thoroughly studied This exhaustive research has indicated that the titles dates and even attributions of a number of works needed to be changed and the catalogue includes a concordance of these revisions

Collections Western Decorative Arts includes a thoroughly researched entry for each object together with an artist biography up to date bibliography and a technical analysis The Oxford Handbook of Byzantine Studies Elizabeth Jeffreys, John F. Haldon, Robin Cormack, 2008 The Oxford Handbook of Byzantine Studies presents discussions by leading experts on all significant aspects of this diverse and fast growing field Byzantine Studies deals with the history and culture of the Byzantine Empire the eastern half of the Late Roman Empire from the fourth to the fourteenth century Its centre was the city formerly known as Byzantium refounded as Constantinople in 324 CE the present day Istanbul Under its emperors patriarchs and all pervasive bureaucracy Byzantium developed a distinctive society Greek in language Roman in legal system and Christian in religion Byzantium's impact in the European Middle Ages is hard to over estimate as a bulwark against invaders as a meeting point for trade from Asia and the Mediterranean as a guardian of the classical literary and artistic heritage and as a creator of its own magnificent artistic style Albrecht Dürer and the Venetian Renaissance Katherine Crawford Luber, Albrecht Dürer, 2005-05-30 Publisher Description Images of Familial Intimacy in Eastern and Western Art , 2014-02-20 Images of Familial Intimacy in Eastern and Western Art offers a comparative art and socio historical analysis of selected images of familial intimacy in Asia and Europe from the pre modern era to the present day based on an examination of the value systems and expectations existing at the time in the regions in which the works were created A wide variety of images are discussed ranging from family portraits and depictions of the home in seventeenth century Dutch genre paintings ukiyoe prints and fusuma sliding wall panels of the Edo period to familial images made after the Korean War of 1950 53 providing the reader with a rare insight into the evolution East and West of the cultural norms and customs impacting on the family and personal space Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences John D. McDonald, Michael Levine-Clark, 2017-03-15 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Sciences comprising of seven volumes now in its fourth edition compiles the contributions of major researchers and practitioners and explores the cultural institutions of more than 30 countries This major reference presents over 550 entries extensively reviewed for accuracy in seven print volumes or online The new fourth edition which includes 55 new entries and 60 revised entries continues to reflect the growing convergence among the disciplines that influence information and the cultural record with coverage of the latest topics as well as classic articles of historical and theoretical importance Reports of the President and Treasurer of Harvard College Harvard University, 1929 Toward a Geography of Art Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, 2004-03-14 Art history traditionally classifies works of art by country as well as period but often political borders and cultural boundaries are highly complex and fluid Questions of identity policy and exchange make it difficult to determine the place of art and often the art itself results from these conflicts of geography and culture Addressing an important approach to art history Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann's book offers essays that focus on the intricacies of accounting for the geographical dimension of art history during the early modern period in Europe Latin America and Asia Toward a Geography of Art presents a historical overview of these complexities debates contemporary concerns and completes its exploration with a diverse collection of case studies Employing the author s expertise in a variety of fields the book delves into critical issues such as transculturation of indigenous traditions mestizaje the artistic metropolis artistic diffusion transfer circulation subversion and center and periphery What results is a foundational study that establishes the geography of art as a subject and forces us to reconsider assumptions about the place of art that underlie the longstanding narratives of art history

The Thief, the Cross, and the Wheel Mitchell B. Merback,1999-07 Christ s Crucifixion is one of the most recognized images in Western visual culture and it has come to stand as a universal symbol of both suffering and salvation But often overlooked in this symbolic language is the fact that ultimately the Crucifixion is a scene of capital punishment In The Thief the Cross and the Wheel Mitchell Merback reconstructs the religious legal and historical context of the Crucifixion and of other images of public torture The result is an account of a time when criminal justice and religion were entirely interrelated and punishment was a visual spectacle devoured by a popular audience Jacket

The Top Books of the Year German Paintings Of The Fifteenth Through Seventeenth Centuries The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. German Paintings Of The Fifteenth Through Seventeenth Centuries : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
