demonstrates how new classifications of language and race caused Buddhism and Islam to gain special significance as these religions came to be seen in opposing terms Aryan on one hand and Semitic on the other Masuzawa also explores the complex relation of world religions to Protestant theology from the hierarchical ordering of religions typical of the Christian supremacists of the nineteenth century to the aspirations of early twentieth century theologian Ernst Troeltsch who embraced the pluralist logic of world religions and by so doing sought to reclaim the universalist destiny of European modernity Ten Great Religions: An essay in comparative theology. 36th ed. 1897 James Freeman Clarke,1897 Ten
