German Jewish Refugees In England The Ambiguities Of Assimilation:

German-Jewish Refugees in England Marion Berghahn, 1984-06-18      The Creation of the German-Jewish Diaspora Hagit Hadassa Lavsky, 2017-01-11 This book is first of its kind to deal with the interwar Jewish emigration from Germany in a comparative framework and follows the entire migration process from the point of view of the emigrants. It combines the usage of social and economic measures with the individual stories of the immigrants thereby revealing the complex connection between the socio-economic profile varieties and the decisions regarding emigration if when and where to. The encounter between the various immigrant refugee groups and the different host societies in different times produced diverse stories of presence, function, absorption and self-awareness in the three major overseas destinations: Palestine, the USA and Great Britain, despite the ostensibly common German Jewish heritage. Thus, German Jewish immigrants created a new and nuanced fabric of the German Jewish Diaspora in its main three centers and shaped distinct identifications and legacies in Israel, Britain and the United States.

Hitler's Jewish Refugees Marion Kaplan, 2020-01-07 An award-winning historian presents an emotional history of Jewish refugees biding their time in Portugal as they attempt to escape Nazi Europe. This riveting book describes the experience of Jewish refugees as they fled Hitler to live in limbo in Portugal until they could reach safer havens abroad. Drawing attention not only to the social and physical upheavals of refugee life, Kaplan highlights their feelings as they fled their homes and histories while begging strangers for kindness. An emotional history of fleeing, this book probes how specific locations touched refugees' inner lives, including the borders they nervously crossed or the overcrowded transatlantic ships that signaled their liberation.

German-Speaking Exiles in Great Britain, 2023-12-14 The Research Centre for German and Austrian Exile Studies was founded in 1995, basing itself at the Institute of Germanic Studies of the University of London. Dr Anthony Grenville became Chairman of the Research Centre, whose members are Professor Charmian Brinson, Professor Richard Dove, Dr Marian Malet, Dr Jennifer Taylor, Dr Jana Buresova, Rachel Dickson, Dr Andrea Hammel, Dr Bea Lewkowicz, Sarah MacDougall, Dr Anna Nyburg, Professor Andrea Reiter and Professor Ian Wallace, with Dr Malet and Dr Taylor as Honorary Secretary. The aim of the Research Centre is to promote research in the field of German-speaking exiles in Great Britain. To this end, it organises conferences and publishes their proceedings, holds research seminars and publishes its own peer-reviewed Yearbook. Its members cooperate in the writing of scholarly studies, including a book about the German-speaking refugees from Hitler in Britain, Changing Countries, and a study of the Austrian Centre in London, 1939-47. Though the Research Centre has primarily concerned itself with the German-speaking refugees from Nazism in Britain, it aims to extend its scope to include German-speaking exiles of other periods and comparable groups such as the Czech refugees from Hitler or Italian anti-Fascists. Given its location near the heart of the principal centre of settlement of the refugees from Germany, the Research Centre readily provides advice and useful contacts to scholars and postgraduates working in the field. The editors welcome contributions relating to any aspect of the field of German-speaking exile in Great

Class, Networks, and Identity Rhonda F. Levine,2001 This book documents a little known aspect of the Jewish experience in America It is a fascinating account of how a group of Jewish refugees from Nazi Germany came to dominate cattle dealing in south central New York and maintain a Jewish identity even while residing in small towns and villages that are overwhelmingly Christian The book pays particular attention to the unique role played by women in managing the transition to the United States in helping their husbands accumulate capital and in recreating a German Jewish community Yet Levine goes further than her analysis of German Jewish refugees She also argues that it is possible to explain the situations of other immigrant and ethnic groups using the structure network identity framework that arises from this research According to Levine situating the lives of immigrants and refugees within the larger context of economic and social change but without losing sight of the significance of social networks and everyday life shows how social structure class ethnicity and gender interact to account for immigrant adaptation and mobility
