German Literature Under National Socialism:

Women and National Socialism in Postwar German Literature Katherine Stone, 2017 In recent years historians have revealed the many ways in which German women supported National Socialism as teachers frontline auxiliaries and nurses as well as in political organizations In mainstream culture however the women of the period are still predominantly depicted as the victims of a violent twentieth century whose atrocities were committed by men They are frequently imagined as post hoc redeemers of the nation as the rubble women who spiritually and literally rebuilt Germany This book investigates why the question of women s complicity in the Third Reich has struggled to capture the historical imagination in the same way It explores how female authors from across the political and generational spectrum Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Wolf Elisabeth Plessen Gisela Elsner Tanja D ckers Jenny Erpenbeck conceptualize the role of women in the Third Reich As well as offering innovative re readings of celebrated works this book provides instructive interpretations of lesser known texts that nonetheless enrich our understanding of German memory culture Katherine Stone is Assistant Professor in German Studies at the University of Warwick

Literature and Film in the Third Reich Karl-Heinz Schoeps, 2004 This book is the first survey in English of literature and film in Nazi Germany It treats not only works sympathetic to National Socialism but also works of the so called Inner Emigration of the resistance and those written in prisons and concentration camps Much of this literature is not easily accessible in German and not available at all in English translation Historical and ideological context is provided in chapters covering influential works of the time such as Alfred Rosenberg s The Myth of the Twentieth Century and Houston Stewart Chamberlain s The Foundations of the Nineteenth Century Schoeps also analyzes Nazi cultural policies fascist histories of literature and the role of German studies and Germanists in the Nazi movement A major section of the book is devoted to film then a relatively new medium of communication whose propaganda value was clearly recognized by Goebbels the minister for propaganda and president of the Reich s Chamber of Culture One of the most interesting areas of research in recent years is the relationship between Hitler s cultural commissars in particular Goebbels and the literature and film production of the Nazi years This book is based on the revised and expanded second German edition Literatur im Dritten Reich 1933 1945 but has again been revised and expanded especially the chapter on film and Nazi policies toward the film industry The chapter on cultural policies has also been expanded to include Himmler's efforts to meddle in this area New also are sections dealing with Jewish entertainers in concentration camps for example Kurt Gerron and activities of the Jewish Cultural League Karl Heinz Schoeps is professor of German at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

The Politics of Literature in Nazi Germany Jan-Pieter Barbian, 2013-08-29 This is the most comprehensive account to date of literary politics in Nazi Germany and of the institutions organizations and people who controlled German literature during the Third Reich Barbian details a media dictatorship involving the persecution and control of writers publishers and libraries but also voluntary assimilation and pre-emptive self-censorship that began almost immediately under the National Socialists leading to authors forced declarations of loyalty literary propaganda censorship and book burnings Special attention is given to Nazi regulation of the publishing industry and command over all forms of publication and dissemination from the most prestigious publishing houses to the smallest municipal and school libraries Barbian also shows that although the Nazis censored books not in line with Party aims many publishers and writers took advantage of loopholes in their system of control Supporting his work with exhaustive research of original sources Barbian describes a society in which everybody who was not openly opposed to it participated in the system whether as a writer an editor or even as an ordinary visitor to a library
