German Unification and Its Discontents Richard T. Gray, Sabine Wilke, 2015-08-17      German Unification and Its Discontents Richard T. Gray, Sabine Wilke, 1996 A chronological collection of speeches television addresses essays treaties and statements documenting the circumstances and events surrounding German unification from the grassroots movements in the GDR to the merger of the two states in October 1993 Incorporates the official political position      Germany Donald S. Detwiler, 1999 This new edition of a best selling history of Germany originally published in 1976 includes the great watershed of 1989 90 and its aftermath With twelve maps a chronology of events and an updated bibliographical essay Germany A Short History provides a thorough introduction to German history from antiquity to the present      Transformations of the New Germany R. Starkman, 2006-02-04 This collection demonstrates the persistence of the initial anxieties about a united Germany and its rapid absorption of the German Democratic Republic and also suggests a potential optimism that despite much contemporary domestic disenchantment the new Germany continues to thrive as a European democracy endeavouring to confront its past      Homelands Nadav G. Shelef, 2020-07-15 Why are some territorial partitions accepted as the appropriate borders of a nation's homeland whereas in other places conflict continues despite or even because of division of territory In Homelands Nadav G Shelef develops a theory of what homelands are that acknowledges both their importance in domestic and international politics and their change over time These changes he argues driven by domestic political competition and help explain the variation in whether partitions resolve conflict Homelands also provides systematic comparable data about the homeland status of lost territory over time that allow it to bridge the persistent gap between constructivist theories of nationalism and positivist empirical analyses of international relations      Awakening '89 -- Notes on Culture and Politics Heinz-Uwe Haus, 2010-05-18 This collection of documents political speeches as well as academic articles by the internationally admired theater director Heinz Uwe Haus reflects positions and actions which he shared with the majority of the people in his country during the fall of the Wall and the reunification of the German nation The reader is reminded of the sheer joy of the peaceful revolution in autumn of 1989 The texts reflect how millions of people reclaimed their basic human freedoms ending not only the post WWII division of the country but delegitimizing the concept of socialist rule      A History of Germany, 1800 to the Present William Carr, David Wetzel, 2023-01-26 A History of Germany 1800 to the Present is a commanding survey of modern German history that guides you from the turn of the 19th century right the way through to Germany's continuing world power status today Covering the revolutions of 1848 49 Bismarck the World Wars the Cold War and the progress of a reunified Germany the 5th edition of this classic textbook provides an authoritative exploration of the country across the whole period like no other This edition includes A new first chapter covering 1800 1815 A greatly expanded chapter on the reunification in 1989 90 An absorbing final chapter on the political economic and social developments in the new Federal Republic from 1990 to the present including a comprehensive analysis of the financial crisis of 2008 2010 Additional content throughout on the political activism and engagement of women from 1848 49 to the present the significance of German colonialism from 1884 to 1919 the origins of WWI the Third Reich and the GDR Biographical textbox vignettes of key actors For the first time 40 images and 9 maps Rich with insights into the key historiographical debates this book offers a thorough introduction to Germany s complex modern history

The Routledge History of Human Rights Jean Quataert, Lora Wildenthal, 2019-09-05 The Routledge History of Human Rights is an interdisciplinary collection that provides historical and global perspectives on a range of human rights themes of the past 150 years The volume is made up of 34 original contributions It opens with the emergence of a new internationalism in the mid nineteenth century examines the interwar League of Nations and the United Nations eras of human rights and decolonization and ends with the serious challenges for rights norms laws institutions and multilateral cooperation in the national security world after 9 11 These essays provide a big picture of the strategic political and changing nature of human rights work in the past and into the present day and reveal the contingent nature of historical developments Highlighting local national and non Western voices and struggles the volume contributes to overcoming Eurocentric biases that burden human rights histories and studies of international law It analyzes regions and organizations that are often overlooked The volume thus offers readers a new and broader perspective on the subject International in coverage and containing cutting edge interpretations the volume provides an overview of major themes and suggestions for future research This is the perfect book for those interested in social justice grass roots activism and international politics and society

Not-So-Special Relationship Luca Ratti, 2017-03-08 Examines how German reunification and the end of the Quadripartite Agreement in 1990 impacted the Anglo American special relationship Luca Ratti offers new insights into the role of the Anglo American special relationship in German reunification and examines the impact that Germanys reunification had on Anglo American and transatlantic relations Germanys unification in October 1990 was one of the most momentous events in modern European history and world politics since the end of World War II German unity ended the Cold War in Europe accelerated the collapse of communist regimes across Eastern Europe and the disintegration of the USSR in 1991 It also triggered NATOs transformation at the London and Rome summits of the Alliance and deepened Europes political and economic integration with the signing of the treaty of Maastricht in 1992 Key Features Analyses and compares attitudes reactions and developments in the US and Britain Considers their interface with the views and initiatives of the West German government Offers new insight into an issue central to Anglo American and transatlantic relations Includes interview with key decision makers involved in the negotiations in 1989 90 such as John Major James Baker III Helmut Kohl and Hans Dietrich Genscher

Bowling for Communism Andrew Demshuk, 2020-10-15 Bowling for Communism illuminates how civic life functioned in Leipzig East Germany s second largest city on the eve of the 1989 revolution by exploring acts of urban ingenuity amid catastrophic urban decay Andrew Demshuk profiles the creative activism of local communist officials who with the help of scores of volunteers constructed a palatial bowling alley without Berlin's knowledge or approval In a city mired in disrepair civic pride overcame resentment against a regime loathed for corruption Stasi spies and the Berlin Wall Reconstructing such episodes through interviews and obscure archival materials Demshuk shows how the public sphere functioned in Leipzig before the fall of communism Hardly detached or inept local officials worked around centralized failings to build a more humane city And hardly disengaged residents turned to black market construction to patch up their surroundings Because such urban ingenuity was premised on weakness in the centralized regime the dystopian cityscape evolved from being merely a quotidian grievance to the backdrop for revolution If by their actions officials were demonstrating that the regime was irrelevant and if in their own experiences locals only attained basic repairs outside official channels why should anyone have mourned the system when it was overthrown

Women in German Yearbook Women in German Yearbook, 1999-01-01 Each volume of Women in German Yearbook includes a wide variety of feminist essays on German literature and culture In volume 14 John M Jeep focuses on women's friendships in an anonymous twelfth century paraphrase and commentary on the Song of Songs Albrecht Classen examines a sixteenth century songbook and Mara R Wade documents the importance of the contributions of three seventeenth century Saxon sisters Melanie Archangeli draws attention to the contributions of Charlotte von Hezel Gail K Hart explores Friedrich Schiller's Die Jungfrau von Orleans Lisa C Roetzel reads Die G_nderode as a documentation of Bettine von Arnim's subversive notions of female genius Muriel Cormican analyzes the vacillation between submission and self assertion of the female protagonist in Lou Andreas Salom's Das Haus Inca Rumold reads Else Lasker Sch_ler's Der Malik as a pacifist response to World War I Friederike Emonds investigates the concepts of Heimat and Vaterland in Frau Emma k mpft im Hinterland Catherine C Marshall sees the alternative society created in Ilse Langner's Klyt mnestra as a feminist response to the rhetoric of war Dagmar C G Lorenz explores the concepts man and animal in the works of Jewish writers Hannelore Mundt focuses on the narrator's preoccupation with Katherine Mansfield in a recent novel by Christa Moog and Sabine Wilke analyzes the cruel woman in the works of Monika Treut against the background of earlier depictions by Leopold von Sacher Masoch and the marquis de Sade Sara Friedrichsmeyer is a professor in and chair of the Department of Languages and Literatures at the University of Cincinnati Patricia Herminghouse is a professor of German at the University of Rochester

After The Wall Patricia J Smith, 2019-05-20 Since the fall of the Berlin Wall in November 1989 Germany has faced complex challenges The rapid introduction of political economic and social union in 1990 joined East and West in an experiment without precedent as the former German Democratic Republic adopted the structures of the Federal Republic of Germany Related issues include the ado Creating a Democratic Civil Society in Eastern Germany C. Olivo, 2001-05-03 This book examines normative theories of civil society and deliberative democracy by using a case study of the East German citizen movements that led the democratic opposition against the communist regime These movements espoused political ideals and engaged in public activities with striking affinities to recent normative theoretical conceptions of civil society

Tracing the history of the citizen movements from the 1970s through the 1990s this study analyzes their attempts to transform German politics through a politics of civil society This case reveals the democratic potential of civil society theories as well as the obstacles facing the realization of alternative visions of democracy in contemporary liberal democracies

Saving Nature Under Socialism Julia E. Ault, 2021-09-09 When East Germany collapsed in 1989 1990 outside observers were shocked to learn the extent of environmental devastation that existed there Saving Nature Under Socialism introduces readers to environmentalism in Cold War East Germany and traces the evolution of environmental policy and protest in East Germany and central Europe from the 1960s

Twenty Years After Communism Michael H. Bernhard, Jan Kubik, 2014 Remembering the past especially as collectivity is a political process thus the politics of memory and commemoration is an integral part of the establishment of new political regimes new identities and new principles of political legitimacy This volume is about the explosion of the politics of memory triggered by the fall of state socialism in Eastern Europe particularly about the politics of its commemoration twenty years later It offers seventeen in depth case studies an original theoretical framework and a comparative study of memory regime types and their origins Four different kinds of mnemonic actors are identified mnemonic warriors mnemonic pluralists mnemonic abnegators and mnemonic perspectives Their combinations render three different types of memory regimes fractured pillarized and unified Disciplined comparative analysis shows how several different configurations of factors affect the emergence of mnemonic actors and different varieties of memory regimes There are three groups of causal factors that influence the political form of the memory regime the range of structural constraints the actors face e g the type of regime transformation cultural constraints linked to past political conflict e g salient ethnic or religious cleavages and cultural and strategic choices actors make e g framing post communist political identities

Culture and Crisis Nina Witoszek, Lars Trägårdh, 2002 It is often argued that Germany and Scandinavia stand at two opposite ends of a spectrum with regard to their response to social economic disruptions and cultural challenges Though in many respects they have a shared cultural inheritance it is nevertheless the case that they mobilize different mythologies and different modes of coping when faced with breakdown and disorder The authors argue that it is at these critical junctures points of crisis and innovation in the life of communities that the tradition and identity of national and local communities are formed polarized and revalued it is here that social change takes a particular direction

The Transition David W. Lovell, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 This useful collection brings together scholars from diverse standpoints to examine the transition from Communism a decade after it began The result is a book that illuminates the changes and particularly the problems that have accompanied attempts to introduce representative democracy and a viable market economy into formerly Communist states Specialist chapters on the Former Soviet Union Russia Poland Azerbaijan and the former East Germany institutional accounts of postcommunist states and conceptual chapters result in this volume being ideally suited to university courses policy makers and NGOs that have an interest in transition countries

Citizenship and Identity in Turkey Basak Ince, 2012-04-26 Is Turkish nationalism simply a product of Kemalist propaganda from the early Turkish Republic or an inevitable consequence of a firm and developing Turkish identity How do the politics of nationalism and identity limit Turkey's progression towards a fuller more institutionalised democracy Turkish citizenship is a vital aspect of today's Republic and yet it has long been defined only through legal framework neglecting its civil political and social implications Here Basak Ince seeks to rectify this examining the identity facets of citizenship and how this relates to nationalism democracy and political participation in the modern Turkish republic By tracing the development of the citizenship from the initial founding of the Republic to the immediate post World War II period and from the military interventions of the 1960s 1970s and 1980s to the present day she offers in depth analysis of the interaction of state and society in modern Turkey which holds wider implications for the study of the Middle East

Contesting Education and Identity in Hong Kong Liz Jackson, 2020-12-29 This text examines the intersection of youth civic engagement identity and protest in Hong Kong through the lens of education It explores how education and identity have been contested in Hong Kong historically and today and the mark that such contestations have left on education Many people particularly outside Hong Kong were astonished by youth participation in the Umbrella Movement of 2013 2014 and the anti extradition law protests in 2019 These protests have caused people to consider what has changed in Hong Kong over time and what education has to do with youth civic engagement and political expression This book provides an academic theoretically oriented perspective on the intersection of youth identity and education in Hong Kong Coming from an educational and philosophical orientation Jackson focuses on areas where greater understanding and greater potential agreement might be developed when it comes to education This book will be of interest to educational policy makers curriculum specialists and educational scholars and students in liberal studies social studies civic education comparative and international education multicultural education and youth studies

NGOs, Civil Society, and the Public Sphere Sabine Lang, 2013 This book investigates how nongovernmental organizations can become stronger advocates for citizens and better representatives of their interests Sabine Lang analyzes the choices that NGOs face in their work for policy change between working in institutional settings and practicing public advocacy that incorporates constituents voices
