Joll, 2011-11-02 This volume provides an ethnographic description of Muslim merit making rhetoric rituals and rationales in Thailand's Malay far south This study is situated in Cabetigo one of Pattani's oldest and most important Malay communities that has been subjected to a range of Thai and Islamic influences over the last hundred years The volume describes religious rhetoric related to merit making being conducted in both Thai and Malay that the spiritual currency of merit is generated through the performance of locally occurring Malay adat and globally normative amal ibadat Concerning the rationale for merit making merit makers are motivated by both a desire to ensure their own comfort in the grave and personal vindication at judgment as well as to transfer merit for those already in the grave who are known to the merit maker While the rhetoric elements of Muslim merit making reveal Thai influence its ritual elements confirm the local impact of reformist activism Deciphering Southern Thailand's Violence Sascha Helbardt, 2016-04-29 Scholars have given guestions about the perpetrators of nameless violence in Southern Thailand little consideration leaving the motives that drive Barisan Revolusi Nasional BRN heavily cloaked in secrecy and speculation This book offers a rare glimpse behind the veil that shrouds BRN Coordinate Using exclusive access to and detailed interviews with BRN Coordinate members this book analyses the communicative dimension of the insurgency It depicts the hidden channels and organized violence that drive the regions enduring rebellion as well as BRN s dichotomous existence between silence and The Malays Anthony Milner, 2009-03-30 Just who are the Malays This provocative study posesthe question communication and considers how and why the answers have changed over time and from one region to another Anthony Milner develops a sustained argument about ethnicity and identity in an historical Malay context The Malays is a comprehensive examination of the origins and development of Malay identity ethnicity and consciousness over the past five centuries Covers the political economic and cultural development of the Malays Explores the Malay presence in Brunei Singapore Indonesia Thailand Cambodia Sri Lanka and South Africa as well as themodern Malay show state of Malaysia Offers diplomatic speculation about ways Malay ethnicity willdevelop and be challenged in the future Rebellion in Southern Thailand Thanet Aphornsuvan, 2006-12-01 This study addresses the competing histories of Thailand and Patani beginning in the fourteenth century up to the mid twentieth century It provides an explanation of the causes of ongoing political conflict between the Malay Muslims in the three southernmost provinces of Thailand and the Thai government against which separatist movements fought in the 1960s Even though January 2004 marked the beginning of the current violence that now plaques Thailand's south most people in and outside the area still believe that the nature of such conflict is internal and could be resolved peacefully The major contention in the competing histories of Siam and Patani revolves around national policies that resulted in discrimination and destruction of the Muslim's cultural identity and rights In the early twentieth century under the rule of King Chulalongkorn which was characterized by centralization and cultural suppression Patani was reduced to a mere province Further forced assimilation occurred under the Phibun government in the 1940s at which time Islamic practices and the use of the Yawi language were curbed The sources of political conflict including the political status of Patani ethnic identity Bangkok politics and bureaucratic misconduct in the south have historical roots Understanding and appreciation of each other's culture and ethno religious identities could lead to positive political will on both sides for peaceful resolution of the conflict The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor King, William D.
