Fishing By Mail The Outdoor Life Of A Father And Son:

Fishing by Mail Vance Bourjaily, Philip Bourjaily, 1993 Deep Trout William Washabaugh, 2020-05-26 On the surface fishing is all about casting catching and communing with nature but on a deeper level the sport is filled with mysteries and contradictions Why do people fish How does a desire to return to nature go hand in hand with high tech gadgetry How is it possible to see other people s fishing as despoiling nature but not one s own What does the long and complex history of the sport reveal Like so much else in life what fishing says about society and the people in it both past and present is hidden from view and almost never discussed This book is a considered foray into the leisure sport of fishing by an avid fisherman who is also a professional anthropologist Those who enjoy the sport tend to extol its naturalness fishing enables them to commune with nature at its most primeval However if it s called natural it s probably a great spot to trawl for clues as to how people manage larger cosmic issues Call it natural the author quips and the anthropologists will come Is fishing an uncomplicated activity or is it deeply meaningful What does it say about culture Is the recent resurgence of interest in the sport simply a reflection of more disposable incomes and more leisure time What is the connection between fishing and Santa Claus fishing and flamenco And finally what is the best way to kiss a trout Unlike most books on fishing which focus on the tale or on how to this book shows that there is much more lurking beneath the surface than fish The Obits: New York Times Annual 2012 William McDonald, 2011-11-11 The obits It s the first section many of us turn to when we open the paper not to see who died but rather to find out about who lived to discover the interesting lives of people who ve made a mark A new annual that collects nearly 300 of the best of The New York Times obituaries from the previous year The Obits Annual 2012 is a compelling addictive as salted peanuts who s who of some of the most fascinating people of the twentieth century Written by top journalists each entry is a jewel a miniature nuanced biography filled with the facts we love to read with the surprise and serendipity of life There s David L Wolper the producer of Roots and the story of how he got his start purchasing film footage from Sputnik The jazz singer Abbey Lincoln and her change from glamorous performer she owned a dress of Marilyn Monroe s to civil rights activist she burned the Monroe dress Owsley Stanley the quirky perfecter of LSD who blamed a heart attack on the fact that his mother made him eat broccoli as a child Patricia Neal known by most as a movie star but her real life filled with tragedy adversity and incredible professional ups and downs is almost a surreal play of triumph and tragedy Arranged chronologically like the obits themselves it s a deliciously random walk through the recent past meeting the philosophers newsmen spies publishers moguls soul singers baseball managers Nobel Prize winners models and others who ve shaped the world Outdoor Life ,1908 Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley s introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works

Merle Longwood,William C. Schipper,Philip Culbertson,Gar Kellom,2011-12-08 Young men undergo significant changes during their years in college They wrestle with big questions which are essentially spiritual questions as they ponder who they are what they believe what kind of persons they want to become and how they might shape the world into something they can feel comfortable being themselves in Those who participate in men s groups realize that their involvement can nurture their inner lives as they explore these questions and connect to transcendent values and a vision of a larger whole This book includes historical and sociological perspectives on men and spirituality and an expanded case study of how one campus pioneered in the development of men s spirituality groups which became a model for other campuses It includes quantitative empirical research that explores college men s openness to spirituality and their interest in men s groups The book s most extensive discussion is based on a qualitative analysis of thirty six interviews with male college students focusing on their understanding of the relationship between their masculinity and their spirituality and how spirituality groups provided a venue in which they could begin to engage what it means to be spiritual and what it means to be a man Contributors include W Merle Longwood William Schipper O S B Philip Culbertson and Gar Kellom Aethlon, 1993 The journal of sport literature Rockbound Frank Parker Day, 1989-05-01 Canada Reads 2005 Winner In a David and Goliath style battle to the finish Rockbound by Frank Parker Day triumphed over Oryx and Crake by Margaret Atwood and was declared the 2005 Canada Reads winner In a series of debates that aired on the CBC in February panelist Donna Morrissey author of Kit s Law and Downhill Chance passionately championed this 1928 novel about life and nature on the small maritime island of Rockbound The victory has brought this Atlantic Province favourite back into the limelight and is receiving nationwide attention appearing on several bestseller lists across the country After its initial publication Rockbound remained in out of print status until 1973 when the University of Toronto Press acquired the rights to publish as part of their Literature of Canada Prose and Poetry in Reprint series It was reprinted with an introduction by Allan Bevan of Dalhousie University s English Department In 1989 Gerald Hallowell an editor with the University of Toronto Press rescued Rockbound from the backlist of the UTP catalogue The book was reprinted with an afterword by Gwendolyn Davies Dean of Graduate Studies and Associate Vice President Research at the University of New Brunswick UTP had been selling around 200 copies of the book per year until Donna Morrissey selected it for the Canada Reads debates Since then UTP has sold over 35 000 copies and it has been reprinted three times The University of Toronto Press would like to thank Donna Morrissey for her superb defense of the book and all of the people at the CBC for their support and encouragement A complete synopsis of the debates as well as an interactive timeline for Rockbound and Frank Parker Day can be found on their website www.cbc.ca/canadareads/index.html Copies of Rockbound can be found in abundance at the University of Toronto Bookstore www.uoftbookstore.com or at your local bookstore To the harsh domain of Rockbound governed by the sternly righteous and rapacious Uriah Jung comes the youthful David Jung to claim his small share of the island Filled with dreamy optimism and a love for the unspoken promises of the night sky David tries to find his way in a narrow unforgiving and controlled world His conflicts are both internal and external locking him in an unceasing struggle for survival sometimes the sea is his enemy sometimes his own rude behavior sometimes his best friend Gershom Born sometimes his secret love for the island teacher Mary Dauphiny but always inevitably his Jung relatives and their manifold ambitions for money and power The balance of life on Rockbound is precarious and thus fiercely guarded by all who inhabit its lonely domain but just as a sudden change in the direction of the wind can lead to certain peril at sea so too can the sudden change in the direction of a man s heart lead to a danger altogether unknown Enormously evocative of the power terror and dramatic beauty of the Atlantic sea and unrelenting in its portrait of back breaking labour cunning bitterness and family strife Rockbound is a story of many passions love pride greed
