Fishing Reflections:

Reflections James O. Jeffers, 2003 The book chronicles James Jeffers life from about age two but it purposefully falls short of being either memoirs or autobiography With this work he has attempted to simply record for his children grandchildren and others the wonderful events of his life as he experienced them The book covers thousands of miles of travel along with living and working with peoples of differing cultures on three continents and in the Caribbean five foreign countries and fifteen different states spanning the nation from coast to coast to coast      Habit of Rivers Ted Leeson, 2006-11-01

Originally published in 1994 this book was a fly fishing phenomenon in the way Howell Raines s Fly Fishing Through the Mid Life Crisis was Taking his fishing hobby to near metaphysical levels Ted Leeson tells about his passions rivers trout and fly fishing With wry humor and rare insight he explores questions that engage most fishermen What is it about rivers that draws us so irresistibly and why does fly fishing seem such an aptly suited response Above all The Habit of Rivers is about ways of seeing the wonderfully textured world that emanates from a river      Reflections at First Light Al Lindner, Ron

Reflections Helen Brown, 2015-07-06 My parents grew up in a time that most of us only read about in history books They saw history made many times Their generation created the advantages that we take for granted today Like us they too had to rely on the Lord Jesus for strength courage and pure grit to get through the dangers they faced each day They still managed to raise five healthy children all of whom are capable productive members of society There was a great variety of experiences throughout their lives and through these have been able to learn and grow as part of the Australian community These lessons have been passed on to not only their children but to the many people that they have come into contact with throughout their days in ministry farming and community service as well They unselfishly offered me this project I am pleased to be able to share some of their lessons with the whole wide world through this book As I presented each article I was made aware that there was an extra blessing that I could claim I have added these at the end of each contribution We their children have been very blessed to have had such wonderful parents as our role models in life My prayer is that this book may bring some insight into what life was like in times past May it also help us all to be grateful for the determination that their generation had to give us the advantages we have today Fishing Club Bob Rich, 2006-05 A collection of portraits of notable anglers A
