Fitzcarraldo The Original Story:

Beyond the Soundtrack Daniel Ira Goldmark, Lawrence Kramer, Richard Leppert, 2007-06-08 This groundbreaking collection by the most distinguished musicologists and film scholars in their fields gives long overdue recognition to music as equal to the image in shaping the experience of film Refuting the familiar idea that music serves as an unnoticed prop for narrative these essays demonstrate that music is a fully imagined and active power in the worlds of film Even where films do give it a supporting role and many do much more music makes an independent contribution Drawing on recent advances in musicology and cinema studies Beyond the Soundtrack interprets the cinematic representation of music with unprecedented richness The authors cover a broad range of narrative films from the silent era not so silent to the present Once we think beyond the soundtrack this volume shows there is no unheard music in cinema Fitzcarraldo Werner Herzog, 1982

Sound Judgment Richard Leppert, 2023-05-31 The essays in Sound Judgment span the full career of Richard Leppert from his earliest to work that appears here for the first time on subjects drawn from early modernity to the present concerning music both popular and classical European and North American Noted for his path breaking interdisciplinary scholarship on music and visual culture the collection includes key essays on music's visualization in art practices in virtually all visual media including film The fourteen essays comprising this volume demonstrate Leppert's many contributions to critical musicology particularly in the areas of aesthetics as well as social and intellectual history all of it grounded in a heterodox body of critical and cultural theory with the work of Theodor W Adorno particularly noteworthy The collection is preceded by an introduction in which Leppert traces his intellectual development defined in large part by the social cultural and political upheavals of the 1960s and their aftermath both in the academy and in society at large Sites of imperial memory Dominik Geppert, Frank Muller, 2016-05-16 Europe's great colonial empires have long been a thing of the past but the memories they generated are still all around us They have left deep imprints on the different memory communities that were affected by the processes of establishing running and dismantling these systems of imperial rule and they are still vibrant and evocative today This volume brings together a collection of innovative and fresh studies exploring different sites of imperial memory those conceptual and real places where the memories of former colonial rulers and of former colonial subjects have crystallised into a lasting form The volume explores how memory was built up re shaped and preserved across different empires continents and centuries It shows how it found concrete expression in stone and bronze how it adhered to the stories that were told and retold about great individuals and how it was suppressed denied and neglected Aesthetic

Technologies of Modernity, Subjectivity, and Nature Richard Leppert, 2015-10-06 Virginia Woolf famously claimed that around December 1910 human character changed Aesthetic Technologies addresses how music especially opera the phonograph and film served as cultural agents facilitating the many extraordinary social artistic and cultural shifts that characterized the new century and much of what followed long thereafter even to the present Three tropes are central the tensions and traumas cultural social and personal associated with modernity changes in human subjectivity and its engagement and representation in music and film and the more general societal impact of modern media sound recording the development of the phonograph in particular and the critical role played by early century opera recording A principal focus of the book is the conflicted relationship in Western modernity to nature particularly as nature is perceived in opposition to culture and articulated through music film and sound as agents of fundamental sometimes shocking transformation The book considers the sound vision world of modernity filtered through the lens of aesthetic modernism and rapid technological change and the impact of both experienced with the prescient sense that there could be no turning back Cinematic Journeys in Latin America Richard Francaviglia, 2023-08-30 This book critically examines how movies that feature real or imagined explorers and expeditions creatively feature the geography of Latin America It focuses on how locales are scripted into film plots and artistically depicted and demonstrates that place is as important as any character in a film especially in this genre Nineteen key films are analyzed Some like Aguirre the Wrath of God Fitzcarraldo The Other Conquest Embrace of the Serpent and The Lost City of Z are based on the exploits of real explorers Others are fictional including Apocalypto Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull and Dora and the Lost City of Gold The author also discusses the evolution of exploration discovery films including trends that will likely be found in forthcoming movies The Cinema of Werner Herzog Brad Prager, 2007 More than any other director Werner Herzog is renowned for pushing the boundaries of conventional cinema especially those between the fictional and the factual the fantastic and the real Drawing on over 35 films this book explores his continuing search for what he has described as the ecstatic truth Forgotten Dreams Laurie Ruth Johnson, 2016 Listening in the Silence in Land of Silence and Darkness 1971 and Heart of Glass 1976 Sound and Nostalgia in Happy People A Year in the Taiga 2010 The Critical Potential of Romantic Melancholy in Into the Abyss A Tale of Death A Tale of Life 2011 Conclusion Conclusion Herzog's Romantic Cinema Notes Bibliography Index War of Shadows Michael F Brown, Eduardo Fernández, 2023-09-01 War of Shadows is the haunting story of a failed uprising in the Peruvian Amazon told largely by people who were there Late in 1965 Ash ninka Indians members of one of the Amazon's largest native tribes joined forces with Marxist revolutionaries who had opened a guerrilla front in Ash ninka territory They fought and were crushed by the overwhelming military force of the Peruvian government Why did the Indians believe this alliance would deliver them from poverty and the depredations of colonization on their rainforest home With rare insight and eloquence anthropologists Brown and Fernández write about an Amazonian people whose contacts with outsiders have repeatedly begun in hope and ended in tragedy The players in this dramatic confrontation included militants of the Movement of the Revolutionary Left MIR the U S Embassy the Peruvian military a renegade American settler and the Ash ninka Indians themselves Using press reports and archival sources as well as oral histories the authors weave a vivid tapestry of narratives and counternarratives that challenges the official history of the guerrilla struggle Central to the story is the Ash ninkas
