Sheehy, 2021-12-12 First published in 1996 Documents a wide range of American yard art and distills from it insights into attitudes and values about places homes neighborhoods communities mediating relationships between culture and nature negotiate consumer culture and reusing and individualizing mass produced things Going Public Jeffrey L. Cruikshank, Pam Korza, 1988 1 copy located in Circulation NOAA/NMFS Juneau Consolidated Facility, Fisheries Management Operation, 'Vision for 2005', 1998 Unpainted to the Last Elizabeth A. Schultz, 1995 The most continuously frequently and diversely illustrated of all American novels Moby Dick has attracted some remarkable book illustrators in Rockwell Kent Boardman Robinson Garrick Palmer Barry Moser and Bill Sienkiewicz among others represented here Juneau Consolidated Facility, Additional Information, University of Alaska Fairbanks Space, Possible Site Lena Point, Fisheries Management Operation, 'vision for 2005', 1997 Environmentalism in Landscape Architecture Michel Conan, 2000 The papers presented in this volume range from proposals for new design approaches historical analysis of the relationship between the practice of landscape architecture and environmentalism to the theories of early practitioners of landscape architecture imbued by an environmentalist outlook The issues above are addressed through topics as eclectic as the design of American zoos the establishment of the Tennessee Valley Authority road design and maintenance in Texas and criticism of relationships between the words and works of select landscape architects This volume provides a fresh approach to encounters between environmentalism and landscape architecture by reframing the issues through self reflection instead of strategic debate Martin Puryear John Elderfield, 2007 Over the last 30 years Martin Puryear has created a body of work that defies categorization creating sculpture that looks at identity culture history This book accompanies an exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art that follows Puryear's development from his first solo show to works being presented for the first time Art in the Public Interest Arlene Raven, 1989 Art for the Public Penny Balkin Bach, Pamela Houk, Gerald Nordland, 1988 Emerging Artists 1978-1986 Diane Waldman, 1987 Landscape Architecture, 1988 Design Book Review, 1987 Contemporary Public Sculpture Harriet Senie, 1992 In the twentieth century public sculpture has changed almost beyond recognition Works inspired by classical and Renaissance traditions imposing equestrian monuments and triumphal arches have been replaced by works such as Claes Oldenburg's Clothespin and Christo's Running Fence This break from tradition has led to radically different approaches to public sculpture but not without bitter controversy within both the art community and the general public Contemporary Public Sculpture offers the first comprehensive look at this highly diverse and often controversial branch of modern art Beginning with the revival of public sculpture in the 1960s with the work of Picasso Calder Moore Nevelson and others Senie traces the developments that defined a new civic art one which substituted the artist's fame for public content and sparked debates about cost the role of government and the place of public art in a democratic society She shows how the growing irrelevance of traditional memorials resulted in a new approach to the genre defined by Maya Lin's Vietnam Veteran's Memorial which set out to heal a nation rather than glorify a military event by honoring victims rather than heroes and how dissatisfaction with modern glass box architecture and its surrounding barren urban spaces led architectural firms like Skidmore Owings and she explores works by George Sugarman and Scott Burton that combine sculpture and furniture changing the very idea of public art by creating a stage for public life Finally she examines the controversies that arise when citizens including the press and politicians confront publicly funded work such as Joel Shapiro's Headless Gumby or Serra's Tilted Arc that defies their sense of what public sculpture should be Illustrated with over one hundred halftones this overview of contemporary public sculpture provides a clear understanding of why it is there why it looks the way it does and what is really at stake in the continuing public art controversy
