Five Hundred Over Sixty Bernard Kutner,1956 Selected References on Aging United States. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Library,1955 Aging ,1951 Aging and Society Matilda White Riley,Anne Foner,1968-12-31 Selects condenses and organizes the entire body of social science research on human beings in their middle and later years This volume summarizes empirically tested generalizations from some three thousand research studies Aging Our Way: Independent Elders, Interdependent Lives Meika Loe,2013-02-01 America is quickly going grey There are more Americans alive today over the age of 80 than ever before in our history by 2030 that number is expected to almost triple But when we discuss how long people live we must also consider how well they live Aging Our Way follows the everyday lives of 30 elders ages 85 102 living at home and mostly alone to understand how they create and maintain meaningful lives for themselves Through extensive interviews Meika Loe explores how elders navigate the practical challenges of living as independently as possible while staying healthy connected and comfortable Aging Our Way celebrates these men and women as they really are lively complicated engaging people finding creative ways to make their aging as meaningful and manageable as possible Written with remarkable warmth and depth of understanding Aging Our Way offers a vivid look at a group of people who too often remain invisible those who have lived the longest and all they have to teach us

The Asian Indian Elderly in America Jyotsna Mirle Kalavar,1998 Culture shock role reversal and adapting to a new society are major challenges for immigrants to meet For older immigrants a move to a Western society with a remarkably different sociocultural milieu can be overwhelming and stressful Perhaps because of the media stereotypes of Asians as the model minority the fact that most have immigrated recently and the assumption that Asian Americans take care of their own scant attention has been paid to the issues of older Asian immigrants Acknowledging the diversity among older Asian Indian immigrants to the United States this book evaluates their life satisfaction This study conducted with 50 elderly Asian Indian immigrants finds that gender differences in levels of life satisfaction were significant and that self assessed health is the strongest predictor of life satisfaction Other contributors to life satisfaction included reasons for coming to the United States living arrangement and social networks The historical and sociocultural framework for aging in India is presented as a contextualizing exercise for the study of older Asian Indians in the United States This study addresses the issues of cultural barriers intergenerational relations and filial piety and highlights the implications for gerontological practice Aging Our Way Meika Loe,2013-03 Elders 85 years and older are the fastest growing segment of the population in the U S and in many other countries Aging Our Way examines how the very old navigate the challenges of loneliness disability and loss while staying healthy connected and comfortable Research Instruments in Social Gerontology ,1982 The Care of the Geriatric Patient Edmund Vincent Cowdry,1963 Effects of Continued Care: a Study of Chronic Illness in the Home Sidney Katz,National Center for Health Services Research and Development,1972 Institutionalization and Alternative Futures Jon Hendricks, 2019-05-23 No one wants to put an aging relative in a home But very few people have an understanding of the issues involved and options available for an older person who needs outside care This important book offers a variety of new insights into ways of maximizing choice independence and well being and minimizing the emotional stunting often associated with institutionalization Both imaginative institutional programs and such alternatives as community maintenance are examined Aging in the Modern World United States.
