Children's Catalog of Two Thousand Books H.W. Wilson Company, 1916 Children's Catalog of Thirty-five Hundred Books H.W. Wilson Company, Corinne Bacon, 1917 Parenting for Peace Marcy Axness, 2012-01-30 If we really want to change the world let's raise a generation hardwired for peace and innovation Marcy Axness details a unique seven step seven principle matrix for helping children achieve self regulation self reflection trust and empathy These qualities are the result of dynamic interactions between genetics and environment beginning before the child is even born foundations for this level of health begin forming during the prenatal period and some aspects of optimal development are influenced as early as conception Stories in Stone David B. Williams, 2019-08-19 Most people do not think to observe geology from the sidewalks of a major city but all David B Williams has to do is look at building stone in any urban center to find a range of rocks equal to any assembled by plate tectonics In Stories in Stone he takes you on explorations to find 3.5 billion year old rock that looks like swirled pink and black taffy a gas station made of petrified wood and a Florida fort that has withstood three hundred years of attacks and hurricanes despite being made of a stone that has the consistency of a granola bar Williams also weaves in the cultural history of stone explaining why a white fossil rich limestone from Indiana became the only building stone used in all fifty states how in 1825 the construction of the Bunker Hill Monument led to America's first commercial railroad and why when the same kind of marble used by Michelangelo clad a Chicago skyscraper it warped so much after nineteen years that all 44,000 panels of it had to be replaced This love letter to building stone brings to life the geology you can see in the structures of every city Squirrel Pie (and other stories) Elisabeth Luard, 2016-07-07 Sacrilegious to say it but Elisabeth Luard even beats Elizabeth David Exquisite writing and wonderful food and funny too Prue Leith Elisabeth Luard proves that no matter where you are there is food to be gathered or hunted or found Squirrel Pie is a beautifully written tribute to food that has all but vanished from our everyday lives Alice Waters Elisabeth Luard one of the food world's most entertaining and evocative writers has travelled extensively throughout her life meeting fascinating people observing different cultures and uncovering extraordinary ingredients in unusual places In this enchanting food memoir she shares tales and dishes gathered from her global ramblings With refreshing honesty and warmth she recounts anecdotes of the many places she has visited scouring for snails in Crete sampling exotic spices in Ethiopia and tasting pampered oysters in Tasmania She describes encounters with a cellarer in chief and a mushroom king and explains why stress is good news for fruit and vegetables and how to spot a truffle lurking under an oak tree Divided into four landscapes rivers islands deserts and forests Elisabeth's stories are coupled with more than fifty authentic recipes each one a reflection of its unique place of origin including Boston bean pot Hawaiian poke Cretan bouboutie mung bean roti roasted buttered coffee beans Anzac biscuits and Sardinian lemon macaroons Illustrated with Elisabeth's own sketches Squirrel Pie will appeal to anyone with a taste for travel and an affinity for that most universal of languages food Catalog of Class Room Libraries

Gregory,2017-07-05 Robert G Gregory challenges the apparent assumption that non Western peoples lack a significant indigenous philanthropic culture Focusing on the large South Asian community in East Africa he relates how over a century they built a philanthropic culture of great magnitude and how it finally collapsed under the ascendancy of increasing state regulation and policies directed against non African communities Compelled by poverty to seek better opportunities overseas most Asians arrived in East Africa as peasant farmers Denied access to productive land and sensing economic opportunity they turned to business Despite severe forms of racial discrimination in the colonial society they suffered few restrictions on their business enterprises and some became very wealthy Gregory s historical analysis shows philanthropy as an important contribution one that stemmed from deep roots in Hindu Muslim and Buddhist culture The sense of nonracial social responsibility cultivated social medical and educational facilities designed for all This age of philanthropy terminated with the Asian exodus The socialist and racial policies adopted by East African governments over the past few decades have virtually destroyed the foundation necessary for philanthropy as well as the distinct Asian cultural identity Gregory s account of the East Asian s role in philanthropy deserves great attention and sober reflection
