Five Years After June The Polish Transformation 19891994:

Five Years After June Jan Winiecki,1996

Balkan Reconstruction Daniel Daianu,Thanos Veremis,2014-06-03

Focusing scholarly attention on a little known area of Europe the book brings together analysts with an insider s view to examine the short and long term challenges facing the region the intricate relationship between politics and economics and the irrelevance of quick fixes in the postwar reform of Southeast Europe Transition, Recession and Labour Supply Paolo Verme,2020-11-25 This title was first published in 2001 Exploring the relationship between the recession and labour supply in Kazakhstan during the 1990s this volume develops an innovative new model of the transitional process in the context of the CIS It departs from conventional economic models explaining the process of transition transferring the focus of attention from labour demand to labour supply with a view to clarifying how the transitional recession has affected households and in turn how these changes modified the supply of labour Paolo Verme examines how the dynamic of the reallocation of labour between state and private enterprises has been drastically altered by the growth of self employment and also takes a much needed look at the contribution of other factors offering an original explanation of this most important economic phenomenon The Commanding Heights Daniel Yergin,Joseph Stanislaw,2002-06-15 The Commanding Heights is about the most powerful political and economic force in the world today the epic struggle between government and the marketplace that has over the last twenty years turned the world upside down and dramatically transformed our lives Now the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Prize joins with a leading expert on the new marketplace to explain the revolution in ideas that is reshaping the modern world Written with the same sweeping narrative power that made The Prize an enormous success The Commanding Heights provides the historical perspective the global vision and the insight to help us understand the tumult of the past half century Trillions of dollars in assets and fundamental political power are changing hands as free markets wrest control from government of the commanding heights the dominant businesses and industries of the world economy Daniel Yergin and Joseph Stanislaw demonstrate that words like privatization and deregulation are inadequate to describe the enormous upheaval that is unfolding before our eyes Along with the creation of vast new wealth the map of the global economy is being redrawn Indeed the very structure of society is changing New markets and new opportunities have brought great new risks as well How has all this come about Who are the major figures behind it How does it affect our lives The collapse of the Soviet Union the awesome rise of China the awakening of India economic revival in Latin America the march toward the European Union all are a part of this political and economic revolution Fiscal realities and financial markets are relentlessly propelling deregulation achieving a new balance between government and marketplace will be the major political challenge in the coming years Looking back the authors describe how the old balance was overturned and by whom Looking forward they explore these questions Will the new balance prevail Or does the free market contain the seeds of its own destruction Will there be a backlash against any excesses of the free market And finally The Commanding Heights

illuminates the five tests by which the success or failure of all these changes can be measured and defines the key issues as we enter the twenty first century The Commanding Heights captures this revolution in ideas in riveting accounts of the history and the politics of the postwar years and compelling tales of the astute politicians brilliant thinkers and tenacious businessmen who brought these changes about Margaret Thatcher Donald Reagan Deng Xiaoping and Bill Clinton share the stage with the Minister of Thought Keith Joseph the broommaker s son Domingo Cavallo and Friedrich von Hayek the Austrian economist who was determined to win the twenty year battle of ideas It is a complex and wide ranging story and the authors tell it brilliantly with a deep understanding of human character making critically important ideas lucid and accessible Written with unique access to many of the key players The Commanding Heights like no other book brings us an understanding of the last half of the twentieth century and sheds a powerful light on what lies ahead in the twenty first century

The Secular and the Sacred William Safran, 2004-08-02 What is the place of religion in modern political systems This volume addresses that question by focusing on ten countries across several geographic areas Western and East Central Europe North America the Middle East and South Asia These countries are comparable in the sense that they are committed to constitutional rule have embraced a more or less secular culture and have formal guarantees of freedom of religion Yet in all the cases examined here religion impinges on the political system in the form of legal establishment semi legitimation subvention and or selective institutional arrangements and its role is reflected in cultural norms electoral behaviour and public policies The relationship between religion and politics comes in many varieties in differing countries yet all are faced with three major challenges modernity democracy and the increasingly multi ethnic and multi religious nature of their societies

Elites and Identities in Post-Soviet Space David Lane, 2013-09-13 The dissolution of the communist system led to the creation of new states and the formation of new concepts of citizenship in the post Soviet states of Central and Eastern Europe The formation of national identity also occurred in the context of the process of increasing economic and political globalisation particularly the widening of the European Union to include the central European post socialist and Baltic States Internationally Russia sought to establish a new identity either as a European or as a Eurasian society and had to accommodate the interests of a wider Russian Diaspora in the near abroad This book addresses how domestic elites regional political and economic influenced the formation of national identities and the ways in which citizenship has been defined A second component considers the external dimensions the ways in which foreign elites influenced either directly or indirectly the concept of identity and the interaction with internal elites The essays consider the role of the European Union in attempting to form a European identity Moreover the growing internationalisation of economies privatisation monetary harmonisation dependence on trade also had effects on the kind of national identity sought by the new nation states as well as the defining by them of the other The collection focuses on the interrelations between social identity state and citizenship formation and the role of elites in defining the content of concepts in different post communist societies This book was originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies The Multicultural Dilemma Michelle Hale Williams, 2013

 This work seeks to explore the contemporary challenge of government in multicultural societies drawing together a wide range of contributors to examine how ethnic difference could be better understood and mediated by modern nation states
 Divided into three sections the book centres round the notion that changing patterns of migration bring escalating obstacles to integration or assimilation In the first section contributors focus on the theory that immigrants are the actors that catalyze contemporary multicultural dilemmas within states with a particular focus on diaspora and how a diaspora community may differ in some ways from other kinds of immigrant community Section two identifies key factors in shaping ethnic identity before moving on to examine the state of the debate over whether identity can be changed or manipulated The contributors to this section provide valuable insights into the catalysts and causes of ethnic division and tension by showing factors in the development of ethnic identity In the third section the focus turns to strategies for mediating multicultural challenges and managing internal diversity in multicultural society offering structural and institutional solutions with evidence of application in specific cases and country contexts Offering a comprehensive overview of this pressing issue and drawing on a wide range of case studies this work will be of interest to students and scholars of migration political sociology race and ethnic studies

Democracy In Poland Raymond Taras, Marjorie Castle, 2018-02-19 Ever changing election rules a highly fluid party system a constitution considered illegitimate by more than one major political actor polarized political elites and a system of corruption that has grown up together with the young democracy itself these characterize contemporary Polish politics At the same time Poland is frequently identified as the most successful example of a transition from communism to capitalism having led this series of world changing transitions It has distanced itself from a turbulent history as pawn in Eastern Europe s international politics to become a leading candidate for membership in the exclusive European Union club As Polish democratic politics evolves it is taking unexpected forms and producing equally unexpected results Through a comprehensive analysis of politics in this young European democracy Marjorie Castle and Ray Taras explain the complexity and uncertainty of political processes and outcomes in Poland Poland spast the flawed Second Republic established after World War I as well as the imperfect independence in the Soviet shadow following World War II s devastation dramatizes the unique historic opportunity it was given in 1989 to determine its own political future and perhaps eventually become a major European power Choices made in 1989 and thereafter would not only construct a new democracy but shape and limit its possibilities The primary focus here is on contemporary politics what the fundamental political cleavages are whether parties adequately represent popular interests who the political elites are and what games they play what influence the Catholic Church still holds in an aspiring Western style secular republic and what policy challenges face Poland in the future Inimitable political leaders changing political arenas and complex policy making processes come to life through a fascinating narrative characterized by an insider s insight Reforming the Russian Economy, 1991-1995 Alekseĭ Uliuĭkaev, 1996

Trends in Development of Transition Countries Marko Kos,1998 Journal of Economic Literature ,1997 Ten Years of Russian Economic Reform Sergei Vasiliev,1999 Reestructuración industrial en las economías en transición Universitat de Barcelona,2000 Los textos recopilados en esta obra son el resultado de una investigación conjunta en la que participaron investigadores españoles franceses búlgaros húngaros y polacos El objetivo de dicho esfuerzo era analizar el impacto de los profundos cambios económicos y sociales producidos en los países del Este de Europa tras la desaparición de los sistemas políticos comunistas en particular la transición de una economía dirigida a un modelo liberal teniendo en cuenta la herencia dirigista y de falta de recursos y mercados preparados para tal cambio Central and Southeastern Europe in Transition Hall Gardner,Elinore Schaffer,Oleg Kobtzeff,2000-06-30 It is increasingly important to understand the complexity of central and southeastern Europe following the enlargement of NATO into Central Europe the ongoing problems of the Balkans and the subsequent focus of global attention on the entire region Gardner brings together exceptional French and Eastern European scholars who present first hand accounts of their experience and knowledge of the region Each provides differing political social cultural and economic perspectives on Central and Southeastern Europe The volume begins with a general discussion of the place of central and southeastern Europe in the greater scheme of European history This is followed by an examination of the western European and Russian attitudes toward the Balkans and the largely ignored affects of the Ottoman empire on the Balkans The importance of culture and the crucial role it played in undermining both the theory and practice of communism is explored The impact of the media is then examined in two chapters that look at the process of media liberalization in the context of each country's political situation and the particular problems the media faces in the region The focus shifts to the role of finance capital and its impact in emerging privatized economies How the global drug wars affect the Balkan region are also explored The ecological damage to Central and eastern Europe and Russia caused by the communist system is detailed and the volume ends with a look at the complexity of factors that led NATO to enlarge into Central Europe and intervene in Bosnia and Kosovo This wide ranging collection will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers involved with all facets of contemporary central and eastern European life Monthly Bibliography United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland),1997 Living with Transition ,2000 Europe-Asia Studies ,1997 Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes American Economic Association,2003 European Politics Today Gabriel Abraham Almond,Russell J. Dalton,G. Bingham Powell,2002 This is the first truly pan European survey of contemporary European politics that includes nations from both Western and Eastern Europe as well as a separate chapter on the European Union Written by foremost scholars in the field the book examines questions about the foundations and processes of democratic government and then compares the experiences of seven nations in Western and Eastern Europe This framework provides a basis for comparing political values institutions and processes across Europe Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes ,2003
