Five Yuan For A Slap On The Face Chinese:

Chinese Literature, 1993 Death Throes of a Dynasty Charles Ewing, Bessie Ewing, 1990 The letters of Charles and Bessie Ewing provide eyewitness accounts of the social upheaval and warfare that shook turn of the century China In addition to discussing their missionary activities in the villages of North China and their struggle to master the Chinese Mandarin dialect the Ewings describe the impact of Western culture upon the social structure of Imperial China as they lived it Ruoff sets the larger scene about which the Ewings wrote The Sino Japanese war the extraterritorial treaties the Boxer Uprising the foreign military interventions the belated effort to modernize by the Manchu dynasty the struggle against opium addiction the student political movement and the beginning of the Chinese Revolution We also learn about the last great empress of China Tzu His and the last emperor the child Pu Yi Through the Ewing correspondence and his own narrative Ruoff shows the parallel between the attitude toward the Chinese held by the foreign community in the 1890s and the equally restricted outlook the Chinese held of their land and themselves But just as the views held by the young Congregationalist minister Ewing change during his nearly two decades of service in China so also the views of the Chinese themselves undergo vast changes This book then is both a compelling history of a period in modern China and the story of an American family living that history Taiping Guangji; A Collection of Ancient Novels in China; The Volume of Destinies and Inductions (Vol. 146 - 163) Li Fang, Taiping Guangji is the first collection of ancient classical Chinese documentary novels The book has 500 volumes with 10 catalogues It is a kind of book based on the documentary stories of the Han Dynasty and the Song Dynasty 14 people including Li Fang Hu Mongolian Li Mu Xu Xuan Wangke Zhen Song white Lv Wenzhong worked under Song Taizong Emperor s command for the compilation It began in the second year of Taiping Xingguo 977 A D and was completed in the following year 978 Ad This book is basically a collection of ancient stories compiled by category The book is divided into 92 categories according to the theme and is divided into more than 150 details The story of the gods and spirits in the book accounts for the largest proportion such as the fifty five volumes of the gods the fifteen volumes of the female fairy the twenty five volumes of the gods the forty volumes of the ghosts plus the Taoism the alchemist the aliens the dissidents the interpretation and Spirit vegetation of birds and so on basically belong to the weird story of nature represents the mainstream of Chinese classical story The book includes the Volume of Destinies and Inductions Vol 146 163 from Tai Ping Guang Ji 中国艺术史, 1993 A General History of Chinese Art Xifan Li, 2022-10-03 This volume examines the progress of Chinese art during the time period of the Five Dynasties Northern and Southern Song Liao Western Xia Jin Dynasties as well as the Yuan Dynasty A special focus lies on the analysis of cultural policies adopted during the reign of the respective dynasties and their effects on the development of dance court music and drama A General History of Chinese Art comprises six volumes with a total of nine parts spanning from the Prehistoric Era until the 3rd year of Xuanton during the Qing Dynasty 1911 The work provides a comprehensive compilation of in depth studies of the development of art throughout the subsequent reign of Chinese dynasties and explores the emergence of a wide range of artistic categories such as but not limited to music dance acrobatics singing story telling painting calligraphy sculpture architecture and crafts Unlike previous reference books A General History of Chinese Art offers a broader overview of the notion of Chinese art by asserting a more diverse and less material understanding of arts as has often been the case in Western scholarship A Study of the Stability of Contemporary Rural Chinese Society Xing Ying,2014-07-08 This book is the last work of the author s trilogy on Chinese rural politics In the background of prominent social conflicts since the 1990s during China s social transformation the author conducted in depth comparative analyses of several conflicts to understand the changes in goals driving forces and operating systems in the Chinese rural group contentions His analyses also focused the changes in techniques and strategies of the governments stability maintenance as well as the complicated social and political consequences brought by these changes This book applies a very unique perspective vigor in the Chinese culture to understand contemporary rural contentious politics in an attempt to overcome the problem brought by sense and sensibility and the confrontation between power and morality in the current contentious politics studies And such a perspective successfully avoids the opposition between the transplanting school and rural school which pushes forward the frontier of research on contentious political theories and rural societies Engineering Communist China You-Li Sun,Dan Ling,2003 Dan Ling a patriotic young engineer eager to help build a new China falls afoul of the authorities and spends 17 years as a political prisoner Rehabilitated after Deng Xiaoping came to power Dan returns to work with unflagging determination to help provide a good life for himself and his people after enduring prison work camps and work farms and the primitive life of the social outcast breaking new ground on the frozen northern frontier Lings personal story is interwoven with glimpses of rural and urban life from the 1950s to the 1970s as China fought to make the wrenching leap from a feudalistic to a modern society Ancient practices alternate with breath taking and misguided experimentation as the common man is called upon to stride boldly into the unknown but no doubt glorious future Scenes of naivety brutality generosity and pettiness personal bonds and vendettas illustrate how peasants workers and intellectuals survived in the evolving Communist system This is an expose written without rancor and a heartening story of faith in man s ability to progress The Underworld of Rural China Baifeng Chen,2023-02-20 This book aims to provide the readers a better understanding of rural China through the particular perspective of the rural underworld It proposes new concepts to describe social changes of rural China by comparing the contemporary rural society with the acquaintance society the classic model for depicting the traditional Chinese society The author s down to earth fieldwork has revealed that with a permeating gang influence the society of rural China has actually changed in nature Such change in social nature is summarized as the estrangement of acquaintances or moral ambiguity As a result of the rural gangster s unlawful acts of lining their pockets with national resources rural China is going through rural governance involution In short this book develops new models and concepts to establish a comprehensive scientific conceptual system for explaining social reality With hard to come by information and a prudent and multi faceted analysis on a neglected topic this book gradually reveals to the readers the true picture of rural China

Kublai Khan John Man,2012-03-31 In Xanadu did Kubla Khan A stately pleasure dome decree Kublai Khan lives on in the popular imagination thanks to these two lines of poetry by Coleridge But the true story behind this legend is even more fantastic than the poem would have us believe He inherited the second largest land empire in history from his grandfather Genghis Khan He promptly set about extending this into the biggest empire the world has ever seen extending his rule from China to Iraq from Siberia to Afghanistan His personal domain covered sixty percent of all Asia and one fifth of the world s land area The West first learnt of this great Khan through the reports of Marco Polo Kublai had not been born to rule but had clawed his way to leadership achieving power only in his 40s He had inherited Genghis Khan's great dream of world domination But unlike his grandfather he saw China and not Mongolia as the key to controlling power and turned Genghis' unwieldy empire into a federation Using China's great wealth coupled with his shrewd and subtle government he created an empire that was the greatest since the fall of Rome and shaped the modern world as we know it today He gave China its modern day borders and his legacy is that country's resurgence and the superpower China of tomorrow
