Pathologies of Power Paul Farmer, 2005 Pathologies of Power uses harrowing stories of life and death to argue that the promotion of social and economic rights of the poor is the most important human rights struggle of our times. Pablo Neruda Pablo Neruda, 1974 A collection of poems by Chilean poet Pablo Neruda. Contemporary Literary Criticism Daniel G. Marowski, 1987-09 Covers authors who are currently active or who died after December 31, 1959. Profiles novelists, poets, playwrights and other creative and nonfiction writers by providing criticism taken from books, magazines, literary reviews, newspapers and scholarly journals. Translators on Translation Kelly Washbourne, 2024-12-13 This is a book in pursuit of translators' philosophies or personal theories of translation. From Vladimir Nabokov and William Carlos Williams to Ursula K. Le Guin and Langston Hughes, Translators on Translation coaxes each subject's reflections on their art, their particular view of translation, and how they carry out their specific form of translation. The translators' intellectual biographies expand our understanding of their views, often in their own words, on the aesthetic, political, and philosophical nature of translation, lend insight into their translation decision making, on specific works, afford critical summaries and contextualizations of their key theoretical and theoretical-practical works, unearth their figurative conceptualizations of translation, and construct their subject identities. As a person's body of work can be diffuse, scattered, fragmentary, and contradictory, inner lives have to be constructed and reconstructed. Through a recovery and narrativizing of their writing and speaking on translation, their interviews, paratextual commentary, letters, lecture notes, and even fiction and poetry, these late twentieth-century subjects answer the question: What is translation to you? The book is supported by additional translators' profiles and selected translations on the Routledge Translation Studies portal. Translators on Translation is key reading for courses on translation, practice, translation history, translation theory, and creative writing courses that engage in translation while also being vital reading for practicing literary translators. Possessions Ben Belitt, 1986 Diverse poems of a singular voice.
