

Stages Of Grief

Being burdened by the necessity of helping to prepare the house after a funeral, not angry just feeling the sadness of what has happened to a close friend.

His death has affected me more than I thought it was going to, feeling helpless, having helped his wife with all preparations for people coming to the house.

Giving their condolences and visiting with his wife, now a widow beside herself with inner grief, not knowing what to do with these feelings being felt.

Tears, angry words, emotions, taking her on a roller coaster ride, confusion and grief banding together to make her think she's going crazy.

Yet she's only going through the seven stages of grief in an order peculiar to her being only, for there is no right or wrong way of grieving in this life.
