Globalizing Confederation Jacqueline Krikorian, Marcel Martel, Adrian Shubert, 2017-11-29 Globalizing Confederation brings together original research from 17 scholars to provide an international perspective on Canada s Confederation in 1867 In seeking to ascertain how others understood constructed or considered the changes taking place in British North America Globalizing Confederation unpacks a range of viewpoints including those from foreign governments British colonies and Indigenous peoples Exploring perspectives from the Austro Hungarian Empire France Latin America New Zealand and the Vatican among others as well as considering the impact of Confederation on the rights of Indigenous peoples during this period the contributors to this collection present how Canada s Confederation captured the imaginations of people around the world in the 1860s Globalizing Confederation reveals how some viewed the 1867 changes to Canada as part of a reorganization of the British Empire while others contextualized it in the literature on colonization more broadly while still others framed the event as part of a re alignment or power shift among the Spanish French and British empires While many people showed interest in the Confederation debates others such as South Africa and the West Indies expressed little interest in the establishment of Canada until it had profound effects on their corners of the global political landscape

Above the Death Pits, Beneath the Flag Jackie Feldman, 2008-04-01 Israeli youth voyages to Poland are one of the most popular and influential forms of transmission of Holocaust memory in Israeli society Through intensive participant observation group discussions student diaries and questionnaires the author demonstrates how the State shapes Poland into a living deathscape of Diaspora Jewry In the course of the voyage students undergo a rite de passage in which they are transformed into victims victorious survivors and finally witnesses of the witnesses By viewing touching and smelling

Holocaust period ruins and remains by accompanying the survivors on the sites of their suffering and survival crying together and performing commemorative ceremonies at the death sites students from a wide variety of family backgrounds become carriers of Shoah memory They come to see the State and its defense as the romanticized answer to the Shoah These voyages are a bureaucratic response to uncertainty and fluidity of identity in an increasingly globalized and fragmented society This study adds a measured and compassionate ethical voice to ideological debates surrounding educational and cultural forms of encountering the past in contemporary Israel and raises further questions about the representation of the Holocaust after the demise of the last living witnesses The death-flag Crumpe,1852 The Flag of Childhood ,2008-06-30 A stirring anthology of sixty poems from the Middle East selected by honored anthologist writer and editor Naomi Shihab Nye This beautiful collection of eloquent poems from Palestine Israel Egypt Iraq and elsewhere open windows into the hearts and souls of people we usually meet only on the nightly news What we see when we look through these windows is the love of family friends and for the Earth the daily occurrences of life that touch us forever the longing for a sense of place What we learn is that beneath the veil of stereotypes our human connections are stronger than our cultural differences The Death-flag Miss Crumpe,1852 Scribner's Magazine ... ,1917 Fights for the Flag William Henry Fitchett,1898
