Hallowed Y. R. Liu, 2023-07-28

Avenel was once a fabled assassin known as the Blade of Elyria

Ever tight lipped about her past she retired from a life of death to wander the world alone

Deena is a sheltered teenage girl unaware of her extraordinary heritage

Raised alone by her mother she has never been far from home

Their paths cross in Deena's secluded village when tragedy obliterates Deena's home and leaves her orphaned

The two begin a journey across the continent bound together by Avenel's promise to keep Deena safe

They encounter allies both new and old a biological father a bastard prince and his friends estranged family and a physician who claims to be a member of a long dead race

Each has regrets and painful memories of their own memories that Deena soon discovers she can relive through dreams

When a prophesied sign of the end of the world appears their journey becomes about more than just the fate of a single girl and the secrets between them may be enough to save the world or end it

No country has had as many stories written about its national police force as Canada

The sterling image of the scarlet coated Mountie was almost as familiar a symbol as the ubiquitous cowboy in American fiction

And nowhere was he more popular than in the dynamic pulp fiction magazines

During the 20s 30s and 40s tales featuring rugged Mounties maintaining the law of the untamed North were so popular that a number of authors built careers specializing in their exploits

This is a generous collection of such stories as flamboyant and red blooded as the publications in which they first appeared
