FLAMES OF WRATH. J. L. CAMPBELL,2024      FLAMES OF WRATH MACK BOLAN,2000      The Flames of Wrath S Frances Tiger,2021-07-06 I ve seen so many lives ended I have myself visited horrors beyond reprieve upon countless souls I have seen cities of fantasy and ships not unlike boats that fly through the air I have observed magic in its rawest forms spoken with ethereal beings worlds no entire solar systems away I have stood in the waters of the Lethe and drank its poison I have betrayed those I loved and committed crimes against nature s balance I have stood against the Beasts that would tear all life apart and I have witnessed multi thousand year old dynasties fall And never once did I imagine that things would turn out quite like they have But I suppose I should start at the beginning      The Unquenchable Flame Sandy Kirk,2009-09-28 A raw hunger gnaws at the soul of the Western church Where are the prophets who will discern the emptiness that has crept silently into the body of Christ in the last one hundred years We long to burn with a passion inside that never ceases We yearn for the undying flames of revival that Jesus died to give us But how can we have a revival that never fades out How can we burn inside and never lose the passion There is only one way It s not what you might expect It s not a new revelation It s as old as the Bible but we have simply overlooked it You ll find it on a lowly hill where the blood of God spilled down upon this earth      The God Who Loves John F. MacArthur,2008-07-06 God is love It s the most basic definition of God in Scriptures but so profound that it s often misunderstood In this probing book a brilliant Bible expositor brings us into the very heart of God by answering such questions as If God is love how could He send anyone to hell What s the difference between the loving God of the New Testament and the angry God of the Old Testament If God is love why did He require His Son to die such a cruel death on the Cross How can God be both loving and jealous The author argues against the two polar views of God as a sentimental grandfather whose doting love could not bring him to punishment of the disobedient and God as an angry tyrant who would rule by threats Both extremes paint a distorted picture of God and further confuse the issue of understanding God s love Dr MacArthur writes He insists that what God loves is actually defined by what He hates and that neither His love nor His wrath can be understood in isolation from the other Although the author is clearly aware of the way great men have grappled with these issues in the history of the Church his doctrinal presentations arise more from the biblical text than from dogmatic theology He examines in detail the way John the apostle of love treats love in his First Epistle then fleshes out the doctrine of God s love in vivid representations of real people interacting with divine love
