ghosts of his violent life Francis his wino ladyfriend of nine years Helen and his stumblebum pal Rudy shuffle their ragtag way through the city's bleakest streets surviving on gumption muscatel and black wit estiny is not their business The premise of Ironweed was so unpromising that in marketing terms the writer still to this day finds it funny the story of a bunch of itinerant alcoholics knocking around Kennedy's hometown falling out having visions trying to pass for sober to cadge a bed for the night in the homeless shelter Guardian But for all the rich variety of prose and event from hallucination to bedrock realism to slapstick and to blessed quotidian peace Ironweed is more austere than its predecessors It is more fierce but also more forgiving Quoted from the classic New York Times review of Ironweed which made it an overnight sensation The (Almost) Complete Hitchhiker in Time Shawn M. Tomlinson, 2015-11-07 The Hitchhiker in Time columns were the single most popular things ever written by Shawn M Tomlinson which honestly doesn't say all that much All together they appeared in fewer than 10 newspapers between 1988 and 2001 Well multiple copies of those newspapers of course The highest circulation was approximately 40 000 so not exactly Bob Greene levels Still Tomlinson had a following with these columns and to a great extent they hold up well today Either that or Tomlinson would like to think so Many of these columns appeared in chapbooks over the years but this is the first full collection of them to be in print Faulkner and the Natural World Donald M. Kartiganer, Ann J. Abadie, 1999 Although he belonged to an American generation of writers deeply influenced by the high modernist revolt against nature and against the self-imposed limits of realism to a palpable world William Faulkner reveals throughout his work an abiding sensitivity to the natural world He writes of the big woods of animals and of the human body as a ground of being that art and culture can neither transcend nor completely control The eleven essays that make up this volume including a paper written by the acclaimed novelist William Kennedy explore the place of the unbuilt world in Faulkner's fiction They give particular attention to the social, mythic and economic significance of nature to the complexity of racial identity and to the inevitable clash of gender and sexuality These essays were presented in 1996 as papers at the Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference held annually at the University of Mississippi Included are the following Lawrence Buell's Faulkner and the Claims of the Natural World Thomas L McHaney's Oversexing the Natural World Theresa M Towner's Color Race and Identity in Faulkner's Fiction Jay Watson's The Art of the Literal in Light in August Mary Joanne Dondlinger's The Matter of Race and Gender in Faulkner's Light in August Louise Westling's Sutpen's Marriage to the Dark Body of the Land Myra Jehlen's Faulkner and the Unnatural Diane Roberts's Eula Linda and the Death of Nature David H Evans's The Bear and the Incarnation of America Wiley C Prewitt Jr's Hunting and Habitat in Yoknapatawpha and William Kennedy's Learning from Faulkner The Obituary of Fear Donald M Kartiganer Howry Chair of Faulkner Studies in the Department of English and Ann J Abadie Associate Director of the Center for the Study of Southern Culture teach at the University of Mississippi Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard, 2000-09-21 Contemporary American Fiction provides an introduction to American fiction since 1970 Offering substantial and detailed interpretations of more than thirty texts by thirty different writers Millard combines them in an innovative critical structure designed to promote debates on cultural politics and aesthetic value The book is the first of its kind to offer a wide ranging survey of recent developments in the fiction of the United States Recent novels by established writers such as John Updike and Philip Roth are analysed alongside the fiction of younger writers such as Gish Jen and Sherman Alexie The books innovative structure encourages new ways of thinking about how American writers might be configured in relation to each other while providing an analysis of how contemporary fiction has responded to changes in central areas of American life such as the family the media technology and consumerism Contemporary American Fiction is a substantial critical introduction to some of the most exciting fiction of the last thirty years an eclectic and thorough advertisement for the extraordinary vitality of American fiction at the end of the twentieth century This is an excellent introduction to the subject for undergraduate students of modern American literature

Very Old Bones William Kennedy, 2011-12-22 It is 1958 and the Phelan clan has gathered to hear Peter Phelan s will read by the living Peter himself an artist whose paintings about members of the family have given him belated critical recognition The paintings illuminate the lives of his brother Francis the exiled hero of Ironweed and a family ancestor Malachi McIlhenny a true madman beset by demons and determined to send them back to hell Orson Purcell bastard son of Peter and half mad himself encounters his first true solace through this obsessive and close knit family he has never quite entered most especially through his Aunt Molly whose intense love affair holds secrets that only another love can resurrect It is through Orson s modern eye that we see the tragedies obsessions and clandestine joys of this singular family This is climatic work in William Kennedy s Albany Cycle riding on the melody of its language and the power of its story which is full of surprise comedy terror and earthly delight
