improve your decision making powers How to remember directions To develop laser sharp concentration How to build a mental fact file To increase your self confidence The techniques systems and strategies in Quantum Memory Power are unrivaled Dominic has devised each and every one of them from his own trials and errors The result is a powerful system that will unleash memory powers you never knew you had Come join him and take the journey of a lifetime Terrestrial Neutron-induced Soft Errors in Advanced Memory Devices Takashi Nakamura,2008 There are numerous elaborate and comprehensive textbooks and guidelines on stroke However busy clinicians are constantly bombarded with new knowledge for an infinite number of medical conditions It becomes a challenge for them to tease out the important information that will help guide them through the care of the patient they have right before them This handbook is thus conceptualized with both the busy clinician and the stroke patient needing urgent treatment in mind By providing only essential information in a standard and user friendly layout it assists clinicians in making real time decisions quickly and effectively with actual step by step guides on specific issues relevant to the care of stroke patients The use of this practical handbook is instinctive with the topics arranged in chronological order simulating the actual clinical scenario from a prehospital setting consultation in the emergency room admission to the hospital to secondary prevention in the clinic With contributions from over 30 stroke experts in Southeast Asia this handbook is widely applicable in different medical settings and will certainly appeal to stroke specialists general practitioners nurses paramedics and medical students alike The Medicine of Memory Alejandro Murguía,2010-01-01 An American Book Award winner s creative memoir traces his own family s history as well as the long story of Hispanics in America Spirited writing Library Journal People who live in California deny the past asserts Alejandro Murgu a In a state where what matters is keeping up with the current trends fads or latest computer gizmo no one has the time energy or desire to reflect on what happened last week much less what happened ten years ago or a hundred From this oblivion of memory he continues comes a false sense of history a deluded belief that the way things are now is the way they have always been In this work of creative nonfiction Murgu a draws on memories his own and his family s reaching back to the eighteenth century to re construct the forgotten Chicano indigenous history of California He tells the story through significant moments in California history including the birth of the mestizo in Mexico destruction of Indian lifeways under the mission system violence toward Mexicanos during the Gold Rush Chicano farm life in the early twentieth century the Chicano Movement of the 1960s Chicano Latino activism in San Francisco in the 1970s and the current rebirth of Chicano Indio culture Rejecting the notion that history is always written by the victors and refusing to be one of the vanquished he records and draws us into his own California history The ^AGreat War and Modern Memory Paul Fussell,2013-05-15 A new edition of Paul Fussell s literate literary and illuminating account of the Great War now a classic text of literary and cultural criticism The Cuban Missile Crisis in American Memory Sheldon M Stern,2023-05-25 Marshals irrefutable evidence to succinctly demolish the mythic version of the crisis sober analysis The Atlantic This book exposes the misconceptions half truths and outright lies that have shaped the still dominant but largely mythical version of what happened in the White House during those harrowing two weeks of secret Cuban missile crisis deliberations More than a half century after the event it is surely time to demonstrate once and for all that Robert F Kennedy's Thirteen Days and the personal memoirs of other ExComm members cannot be taken seriously as historically accurate accounts of the ExComm meetings This book from the first historian to listen to and evaluate the White House tapes made during the crisis does exactly that Stern is not alone in questioning the precision of the transcripts offered but he has made the most painstaking attempt to clarify what was really said and done Journal of American History The Politics of Loss and Trauma in Contemporary Israeli Cinema Raz Yosef, 2012-05-23 The last decade has marked the growing visibility and worldwide interest in Israeli cinema Films such as Walk on Water Or My Treasure Beaufort and Waltz with Bashir have been commercially and critically successful both in Europe and the United States and have won a number of prestigious international awards This book examines for the first time the new ideological and aesthetic trends in contemporary Israeli cinema More specifically it critically explores the complex and crucial role of Israeli cinema in remembering and restaging traumas and losses that were denied entry into the shared national past One of the most striking phenomena in contemporary Israeli cinema is the number and scope of films dealing with past traumatic events events that were repressed or insufficiently mourned such as the memory of the Holocaust traumas from wars and terrorist attacks and the losses entailed by the experience of immigration Current Israeli cinema exposes and highlights a radical discontinuity between history and memory Traumatic events from Israeli society's past are represented as the private memory of distinct social groups soldiers immigrants women queers and not as collective memory as a lived and practiced tradition that conditions Israeli society This detachment from national collective memory pulls the films into a world marked by a persistent blurring of the historical context and by private and subjective impressions a timeless world of dreams hallucinations and myths These groups feel duty bound to remember the past recasting repressed memories through the cinema in order to return and to give meaning to their identity Shining Sun: In Memory of 'Allamah Tabataba'i Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Husayni Tihrani, 2011-01-01 Shining Sun is a tribute to the life and thought of the renowned Islamic scholar Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i written soon after his death by one of his students Shining Sun includes an overview of Tabataba'i's life and transcriptions of discussions between Tabataba'i and his students These discussions cover history philosophy mysticism theology and the Qur'an Sayyid Muhammad Husayn Tabataba'i 1902-1981 commonly referred to as the most learned Allamah was a prominent Muslim scholar who breathed new life into the Shi'a seminaries by establishing courses on the interpretation of the Qur'an and by introducing a novel method of Qur'anic interpretation He was a master of Islamic philosophy and a model of spirituality Allamah Tabataba'i is undoubtedly the major Shi'a thinker of modern times and his impact on Persian philosophy and theology is incomparable Anyone who approaches his work is bound to be impressed by it and the fertility of his thought can be seen in the considerable contributions that his many students have continued to make to Islamic philosophy It is wonderful to see the Persian tradition of respecting great personalities in writing continuing in modern times Oliver Leaman University of Kentucky USA

A Memory Between Us (Wings of Glory Book #2) Sarah Sundin, 2010-09-01 Major Jack Novak has never failed to meet a challenge until he meets army nurse Lieutenant Ruth Doherty When Jack lands in the army hospital after a plane crash he makes winning Ruth's heart a top priority mission But he has his work cut out for him Not only is Ruth focused on her work in order to support her orphaned siblings back home she carries a shameful secret that keeps her from giving her heart to any man Can Jack break down her defenses Or are they destined to go their separate ways A Memory Between Us is the second book in the WINGS OF GLORY series which follows the three Novak brothers B 17 bomber pilots with the US Eighth Air Force stationed in England during World War II

Violence and Public Memory Martin Blatt, 2023-06-23 Violence and Public Memory assesses the relationship between these two subjects by examining their interconnections in varied case studies across the United States South America Europe the Middle East and Africa Those responsible for the violence discussed in this volume are varied and the political ideologies and structures range from apartheid to fascism to homophobia to military dictatorships but also democracy Racism and state terrorism have played central roles in many of the case studies examined in this book and multiple chapters also engage with the recent rise of the Black Lives Matter movement The sites and history represented in this volume address a range of issues including mass displacement genocide political repression forced disappearances massacres and slavery Across the world there are preserved historic sites memorials and museums that mark places of significant violence and human rights abuse which organizations and activists have specifically worked to preserve and provide a place to face history and its continuing legacy today and chapters across this volume directly engage with the questions and issues that surround these sometimes controversial sites Including photographs of many of the sites and events covered across the volume this is an important book for readers interested in the complex and often difficult history of the relationship between violence and the way it is publicly remembered Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
