Flash of the Spirit Robert Farris Thompson, 2010-05-26 This landmark book shows how five African civilizations Yoruba Kongo Ejagham Mande and Cross River have informed and are reflected in the aesthetic social and metaphysical traditions music sculpture textiles architecture religion idiogrammatic writing of black people in the United States Cuba Haiti Trinidad Mexico Brazil and other places in the New World Flash of the Spirit Robert Farris Thompson, 1983 African Voices in the African American Heritage Betty M. Kuyk, 2003 The survival of African belief systems and social structures in contemporary African American culture African Roots, Brazilian Rites C. Sterling, 2012-09-06 This text explores how Afro Brazilians define their Africanness through Candomblé and Quilombo models and construct paradigms of blackness with influences from US based perspectives through the vectors of public rituals carnival drama poetry and hip hop African Americans and the Bible Vincent L. Wimbush, 2012-09-01 Perhaps no other group of people has been as much formed by biblical texts and tropes as African Americans From literature and the arts to popular culture and everyday life the Bible courses through black society and culture like blood through veins Despite the enormous recent interest in African American religion relatively little attention has been paid to the diversity of ways in which African Americans have utilized the Bible African Americans and the Bible is the fruit of a four year collaborative research project directed by Vincent L Wimbush and funded by the Lilly Endowment It brings together scholars and experts sixty eight in all from a wide range of academic and artistic fields and disciplines including ethnography cultural history and biblical studies as well as art music film dance drama and literature The focus is on the interaction between the people known as African Americans and that complex of visions rhetorics and ideologies known as the Bible As such the book is less about the meanings of the Bible than about the Bible and meanings less about the worlds of the Bible than about how worlds and the Bible interact in short about how a text constructs a people and a people constructs a text It is about a particular sociocultural formation but also about the dynamics that obtain in the interrelation between any group of people and sacred texts in general Thus African Americans and the Bible provides an exemplum of sociocultural formation and a critical lens through which the process of sociocultural formation can be viewed Black Art and Aesthetics Michael Kelly, Monique Roelofs, 2023-11-30 Black Art and Aesthetics comprises essays poems interviews and over 50 images from artists and writers GerShun Avilez Angela Y Davis Thomas F DeFrantz Theaster Gates Aracelis Girmay Jeremy Matthew Glick Deborah Goffe James B Haile III Vijay Iyer Isaac Julien Benjamin Krusling Daphne Lamothe George E Lewis Sarah Elizabeth Lewis Meleko Mokgosi Wangechi Mutu Fumi Okiji Nell Painter Mickaella Perina Kevin Quashie Claudia Rankine Claudia Schmuckli Evie Shockley Paul C Taylor Kara Walker Simone White and Mabel O Wilson The stellar contributors practice Black aesthetics by engaging intersectionally with class queer sexuality female embodiment dance vocabularies coloniality Afrodiasporic music Black post soul art Afropessimism and more Black aesthetics thus restores aesthetics to its full potential by encompassing all forms of sensation and imagination in art

Painting a Hidden Life Mechal Sobel, 2009-03-15 Born into slavery on an Alabama plantation in 1853 Bill Traylor worked as a sharecropper for most of his life But in 1928 he moved to Montgomery and changed his life becoming a self taught lyric painter of extraordinary ability and power From 1936 to 1946 he sat on a street corner old ill and homeless and created well over 1 200 paintings Collected and later promoted by Charles Shannon a young Montgomery artist his work received star placement in the Corcoran Gallery s 1982 exhibition Black Folk Art in America From then on the spare and powerful radical modernity of Traylor s work helped place him among the rising stars of twentieth century American artists Most critics and art historians who analyze Traylor s paintings emphasize his extraordinary form and evaluate the content as either simple or enigmatic narratives of black life In Painting a Hidden Life historian Mechal Sobel s trenchant analysis reveals a previously unrecognized central core of meaning in Traylor s near hidden symbolism a call for retribution in response to acts of lynching and other violence toward blacks Drawing on historical records and oral histories Sobel carefully explores the relationship between Traylor s life and his paintings and arrives at new interpretations of his art From an interview with Traylor s great granddaughter Sobel learned that Traylor believed the Birmingham policemen who killed his son in 1929 in fact lynched him a story that neither Traylor nor his family had previously disclosed The trauma of this event Sobel explains propelled Traylor to find a way to voice his rage and spurred the creation of his powerful mysterious visual language Traylor s encoded paintings tell a vibrant multilayered story of conjure power sexual rivalry and violence Revealing an extraordinarily diverse visual universe the symbols in Traylor s paintings reflect the worlds he lived in between 1853 and 1949 the plantation conjure milieu into which he was born the blues culture in which he matured the world of Jim Crow he learned to secretly violate and the Catholic values he adopted in his final years From his African heritage Traylor drew symbols not readily understood by whites He mixed traditional African images with conjure signs with symbols of black Baptists and Freemasons and with images central to the hidden black protest movement the cross and the lynching tree In this groundbreaking examination of an extraordinary artist Sobel uncovers the internalized pain of several generations and traces the paths African Americans blazed long before the march down the Selma Montgomery highway Landscape of Slavery Angela D. Mack, Stephen G. Hoffius, 2008 Through eighty nine color plates and six thematic essays this collection examines depictions of plantations plantation views and related slave imagery in the context of the history of landscape painting in America while addressing the impact of these images on US race relations

Grime, Glitter, and Glass Nikki A. Greene, 2024-08-30 In Grime Glitter and Glass Nikki A. Greene examines how contemporary Black visual artists use sonic elements to refigure the formal and philosophical developments of Black art and culture Focusing on the multimedia art of Ren e Stout Radcliffe Bailey and Mar a Magdalena Campos Pons Greene traces the intersection of the visual's sonic possibilities with the Black body's physical representational and metaphorical use in art She employs her concept of visual aesthetic musicality to interpret Black visual art by examining the musical genres of jazz and rap along with the often overlooked innovations of funk and rumba within art historiography From Bailey's use of multilayered surfaces of glitter mud and recycled materials to meditate on Sun Ra's Afrofuturism to Stout's life sized cast of her own body that recalls funk musician Betty Davis to Campos Pons's performative and sculptural references to sugar that resonate with the legacy of Celia Cruz Greene outlines how these artists use mediums such as molded glass sculptures viscous wet plaster and dazzling manikin heads to enhance the manifestations of Black identity By foregrounding the sonic elements of their work Greene demonstrates that these artists use sound to make themselves legible recognizable and audible

Terror and Triumph Anthony B. Pinn, 2022-07-26 Given the unique history of African Americans and their diverse religious flowering in Black Christianity the Nation of Islam voodoo and others what is the heart and soul of African American religious life As a leader in both Black religious studies and theology Anthony Pinn has probed the dynamism and variety of African American religious expressions In this work based on the Edward Cadbury Lectures at the University of Birmingham England he searches out the basic structure of Black religion tracing the Black religious spirit in its many historical manifestations Pinn finds in the terrors of enslavement of Black bodies and subsequent oppressions the primal experience to which the Black religious impulse provides a perennial and cumulative response Oppressions entailed the denial of personhood and creation of an object the negro Slave auctions punishments and later lynchings created an existential dread but also evoked a quest a search for complex subjectivity or authentic personhood that still fuels Black religion today In this 20th anniversary edition of Pinn's groundbreaking work the author offers a new reflection on the argument in retrospect and invites a panel of five contemporary scholars to examine what it means for current and future scholarship Contributors include Keri Day Sylvester Johnson Anthony G Reddie Calvin Warren and Carol Wayne White Travel & See Kobena Mercer, 2016-02-04 Over the years Kobena Mercer has critically illuminated the visual innovations of African American and black British artists In Travel & See he presents a diasporic model of criticism that gives close attention to aesthetic strategies while tracing the shifting political and cultural contexts in which black visual art circulates In eighteen essays which cover the period from 1992 to 2012 and discuss such leading artists as Isaac Julien Renée Green Kerry James Marshall and Yinka Shonibare Mercer provides nothing less than a counternarrative of global contemporary art that reveals how the dialogical principle of cross cultural interaction not only has transformed commonplace perceptions of blackness today but challenges us to rethink the entangled history of modernism as well

Halloween and Other Festivals of Death and Life Jack Santino, 2025-03-14 Why do we celebrate Halloween No one gets the day off and unlike all other major holidays it has no religious or governmental affiliation A survivor of our pre-Christian agrarian roots it has become one of the most popular and widely celebrated festivals on the contemporary American calendar Jack Santino has put together the first collection of essays to examine the evolution of Halloween from its Celtic origins through its adaptation into modern culture Using a wide variety of perspectives and approaches the thirteen essayists examine customs communities and material culture to reveal how Halloween has manifested itself throughout all aspects of our society to become not just a marginal survivor of a dying tradition but a thriving contemporary post industrial festival Its steadily increasing popularity despite overcommercialization and criticism is attributed to its powerful symbolism that employs both pre-Christian images and concepts from popular culture to appeal to groups of all ages orientations and backgrounds However the essays in this volume also suggest that there is something ironic and unsettling about the immense popularity of a holiday whose main images are of death evil and the grotesque Halloween and other Festivals of Death and Life is a unique contribution that questions our concepts of religiosity and spirituality while contributing to our understanding of Halloween as a rich and diverse reflection of our society's past present and future identity
