Hemingway's The Garden of Eden Some deal in reverence and romance as in Roland Pertwee's The River God and some in adventure and the stuff of legend as in Zane Grey's The First Thousand Pounder and Ron Rash's Their Ancient Glittering Eyes There are narratives that confront head on the heartbreaks and frustrations of the sport from Thomas McGuane's meditation on long spells of inaction as the essence of fishing in The Longest Silence to Raymond Carver's story of a boy's deflated triumph in the gut wrenching masterpiece Nobody Said Anything And alongside the works of literary giants are the memories of people both great and humble who have found meaning and fulfillment in fishing from a former American president to a Scottish gamekeeper's daughter Whether set against the open ocean or tiny mountain streams in ancient China tropical Tahiti Paris under siege or the vast Canadian wilderness these stories cast wide and strike deep into the universal joys absurdities insights and tragedies of life This beautiful hardcover edition features seven original woodcut illustrations by Paul Gentry and includes a silk ribbon marker European style half round spine and full cloth case with two color foil stamping

Smith, 1977      Wild Life at the Land's End John Coulson Tregarthen, 1922      A River Runs Through It and Other Stories, Twenty-fifth Anniversary Edition Norman Maclean, 2009-08-14

Just as Norman Maclean writes at the end of A River Runs through It that he is haunted by waters so have readers been haunted by his novella A retired English professor who began writing fiction at the age of 70 Maclean produced what is now recognized as one of the classic American stories of the twentieth century Originally published in 1976 A River Runs through It and Other Stories now celebrates its twenty fifth anniversary marked by this new edition that includes a foreword by Annie Proulx Maclean grew up in the western Rocky Mountains in the first decades of the twentieth century As a young man he worked many summers in logging camps and for the United States Forest Service The two novellas and short story in this collection are based on his own experiences the experiences of a young man who found that life was only a step from art in its structures and beauty The beauty he found was in reality and so he leaves a careful record of what it was like to work in the woods when it was still a world of horse and hand and foot without power saws cats or four wheel drives Populated with drunks loggers card sharks and whores and set in the small towns and surrounding trout streams and mountains of western Montana the stories concern themselves with the complexities of fly fishing logging fighting forest fires playing cribbage and being a husband a son and a father By turns raunchy poignant caustic and elegiac these are superb tales which express in Maclean s own words a little of the love I have for the earth as it goes by A first offering from a 70 year old writer the basis of a top grossing movie and the first original fiction published by the University of Chicago Press A River Runs through It and Other Stories has sold more than a million copies As Proulx writes in her foreword to this new edition In 1990 Norman Maclean died in body but for hundreds of thousands of readers he will live as long as fish swim and books are made      A River Runs Through It and Other Stories Norman Maclean,2017-05-16 Collection of three Western stories featuring the title piece about the relationship between a father and his two sons bound together by love and fly fishing      The Progressive Fish Culturist U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service,1972      Coarse Fish Charles H.
