Brown, 2020-06-15 From the dying lips of an old Druid a prophecy was given to Masada It was a look into the future of his yet unborn child One day your son will become a great leader even someday a king The child was a son and now nineteen years later he was a man It was a time of change the Romans had long gone and the vacuum left behind created chaos The year was 450AD the year Britannia became a magnet for those who wished to abandon a war ravaged Europe Saxons took over the south Angles settled in the north east the Celtic tribes ruled the western hills and the Britons became strangers in their own land Against this turbulent background one man took upon himself an impossible journey One that began with a marriage to a beautiful princess and ended with the saving of a nation Jesus and Myth Peter John Barber, 2021-02-15 Is Jesus mythological And is he a mere product of his cultural milieu Through narratological and social scientific analysis of the gospel account Barber systematically demonstrates that there are two opposing patterns structuring the gospel. The first is the pattern of this world which is the combat myth with a typical sequence of motifs having mythological meanings. It is lived out by everyone else in the accounts except Jesus because this pattern of the world is the pattern of myth culture which is the pattern of the old Adam and sin nature. The pattern of Jesus is the pattern intended for Adam to walk in and is the unique pattern of the new Adam. Jesus Christ Jesus's pattern inverts the sequence and subverts the significance of each and every motif and episode of the myth culture's pattern. Barber shows that Jesus's failure to conform to this world's mythological pattern establishes that he is not mythological and not a product of his culture. As the apostle Peter states, we did not follow cleverly devised tales myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 2 Pet 1:16

The Metropolitan Tabernacle Pulpit Charles Haddon Spurgeon, 1894 The Spiritual Vision of Frank Buchman Philip Boobbyer, 2015-06-29 The Spiritual Vision of Frank Buchman is an in-depth look at the life, spirituality, and ideology of one of the most original figures in twentieth-century religion. Frank Buchman (1878-1961), the Pennsylvania-born initiator of the movement known as the Oxford Group and Moral Re-Armament, was a Lutheran pastor who first had influence as a college evangelist and missionary with the YMCA. His thinking then evolved during the 1930s, the Second World War, and the early Cold War as he tried to develop a world philosophy that could offer an answer to war and materialism. His impact was particularly felt in the areas of conflict resolution between nations and interfaith dialogue, and Alcoholics Anonymous also owed much to his methods. Philip Boobbyer's book is the first scholarly overview of Buchman's ideas and is an important addition to the growing corpus of academic literature on his worldwide outreach. Boobbyer shows how his work reflected broader processes in twentieth-century religion and politics and can be seen as a spiritual response to an emerging global society.
