Locating Renaissance Art Carol M. Richardson,2007-01-01 Renaissance art history is traditionally identified with Italian centers of production and Florence in particular Instead this book explores the dynamic interchange between European artistic centers and artists and the trade in works of art It also considers the impact of differing locations on art and artists and some of the economic political and cultural factors crucial to the emergence of an artistic center During c 1420 1520 no city or court could succeed in isolation and so artists operated within a network of interests and local and international identities The case studies presented in this book portray the Renaissance as an exciting international phenomenon with cities and courts inextricably bound together in a web of economic and political interests

Cambridge Public Library Bulletin ,1902 Landscape Drawings of Five Centuries, 1400-1900 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),George Szabó,1988

The Sign Thomas de Wesselow,2013-03-05 How did a first century Jew called Jesus manage to spark a new religion Christianity was born nearly two thousand years ago and has won untold millions of followers Yet historians still cannot say how it really began The Sign finally provides the answer Traditionally the birth of Christianity has been explained via the miracle of the Resurrection but historians have been unable to account for Christianity s remarkable success without the Resurrection to spark it If no one really saw the Risen Jesus how were people convinced that he was their immortal Messiah Art historian Thomas de Wesselow has spent the last seven years deducing the answer to this puzzle Reassessing a much misunderstood historical source and reinterpreting critical biblical passages de Wesselow shows that the solution has been staring us in the face for more than a century The Shroud of Turin widely thought to be a fake is in fact authentic And it holds the key to the greatest mystery in human history
