Books for reference and extra reading. (p. 327-344) Alfred Bates,James Penny Boyd,John Porter Lamberton,1906 A Cultural History of Comedy in Antiquity Michael Ewans,2021-12-30 Drawing together contributions from scholars in a wide range of fields inside Classics and Drama this volume traces the development of comedic performance and examines the different characteristics of Greek and Roman comedy Although the origins of comedy are obscure this study argues that comedic performances were at the heart of Graeco Roman culture from around 486 BCE to the mid first century BCE It explores the range of comedies during this period which were fictional dramas that engaged with the political and social concerns of ancient society and also at times with mythology and tragedy The volume centres largely around the surviving work of Aristophanes and Menander in Athens and Plautus and Terence in Rome but authors whose plays survive only in fragments are also discussed Performances and plays drew on a range of forms including satire and fantasy and were designed to entertain and amuse their audiences while also asking them to question issues of morality privilege and class Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus form theory praxis identities the body politics and power laughter and ethics These eight different approaches to ancient comedy add up to an extensive synoptic coverage of the subject The Drama Alfred Bates,James Penny Boyd,John Porter Lamberton,1903 Revels in Madness Allen Thiher,2009-12-22 A sweeping survey of how notions of madness have been represented in medicine and literature from the Greeks to the present Thematic Guide to Biblical Literature Nancy M. Tischler,2007-04-30 The Bible has had a tremendous influence on world history and culture but it is largely unfamiliar to many students This book relates the Bible to a wide range of literary works commonly read by students and thus helps students understand these texts as well as the cultural and historical contexts surrounding them Included are chapters on 20 themes such as creation family and friends

love and marriage the hero war and death and the afterlife Each chapter discusses the biblical significance of the theme provides scriptural quotations and citations and explores the biblical presence of the theme in literary works often read by students Each chapter cites works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Sharpes,2005 Lords of the Scrolls analyzes ancient literary sources to show how biblical and gospel scribes borrowed and imitated themes from earlier literature to create heroic legends around Hebrew figures and Jesus Comparisons between the Epic of Gilgamesh Enuma Elish Canaanite Egyptian and Greek legends Homeric epics the histories of Herodotus and selected biblical and gospel passages reveal thematic and literary similarities Tracing literary classics from the birth of writing to the first millennium of the modern era this book demonstrates that Hebrew scribes used previous literature to establish a national identity and that gospel scribes borrowed heavily from Homer to create epic legends around the person of Jesus
