Animality and Humanity in French Late Modern Representations of Black Femininity Elodie Silberstein, 2022-08-25 This volume examines the evolution of the depictions of black femininity in French visual culture as a prism through which to understand the Global North's destructive relationship with the natural world Drawing on a broad spectrum of archives extending back to the late 18th century paintings fashion plates prints photographs and films this study traces the intricate ways a patriarchal imperialism and a global capitalism have paired black women with the realm of nature to justify the exploitation both of people and of ecosystems. These dehumanizing and speciesist strategies of subjugation have perpetuated interlocking patterns of social injustice and environmental depletion that constitute the most salient challenges facing humankind today. Through a novel approach that merges visual studies, critical race theory, and animal studies, this interdisciplinary investigation historicizes the evolution of the boundaries between human and non-human animals during the modern period. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, visual studies, critical race theory, colonial and post-colonial studies, animal studies, and French studies.

American Jewelry Manufacturer, 1962 The Cartiers

Francesca Cartier Brickell, 2021-06-08. A dynamic group biography studded with design history and high society dash. This elegantly wrought narrative bears the Cartier hallmark. The Economist. The astounding Andr   Leon Talley story of the family behind the Cartier empire and the three brothers who turned their grandfather's humble Parisian jewelry store into a global luxury icon, as told by a great granddaughter with exclusive access to long lost family archives. Ms. Cartier Brickell has done her grandfather proud. The Wall Street Journal. The Cartiers is the revealing tale of a jewelry dynasty, four generations from revolutionary France to the 1970s. At its heart are the three Cartier brothers whose motto was 'Never copy, only create' and who made their family firm internationally famous in the early days of the twentieth century thanks to their unique and complementary talents: Louis, the visionary designer who created the first men's wristwatch to help an aviator friend tell the time without taking his hands off the controls of his flying machine; Pierre, the master dealmaker who bought the New York headquarters on Fifth Avenue for a double-stranded natural pearl necklace; and Jacques, the globe-trotting gemstone expert whose travels to India gave Cartier access to the world's best rubies, emeralds, and sapphires, inspiring the celebrated Tutti Frutti jewelry. Francesca Cartier Brickell, whose great grandfather was the youngest of the brothers, has traveled the world researching her family's history, tracking down those connected with her ancestors and discovering long lost pieces of the puzzle along the way. Now she reveals never-before-told dramas, romances, intrigues, betrayals, and more. The Cartiers also offers a behind-the-scenes look at the firm's most iconic jewelry: the notoriously cursed Hope Diamond, the Romanov emeralds, the classic panther pieces, and the long line of stars from the worlds of fashion, film, and royalty who wore them, from Indian maharajas and Russian grand duchesses to Wallis Simpson, Coco Chanel, and Elizabeth Taylor. Published in the two hundredth anniversary year of the birth of the dynasty's founder, Louis-Fran  ois Cartier, this book is a magnificent definitive epic social history shown through the deeply personal lens of one legendary family.
