Five Guns West:

Five guns west, 2005 Daily Graphic M. Therson-Cofie, 1957-05-25 "A" Western Filmmakers Henryk Hoffmann, 2024-10-16 From High Noon to Unforgiven the A Western represents the pinnacle of Western filmmaking More intellectual ambitious and time consuming than the readily produced B or serial Westerns these films rely on hundreds of talented artists This comprehensive reference work provides biographies and Western filmographies for nearly 1 000 men and women who have contributed to at least three A Westerns These contributors are arranged by their role in film production Cinematographers composers actors actresses and directors receive complete biographical treatment writers whose work was used in at least two Westerns are also featured An appendix lists well known actors who have appeared in either one or two A Westerns as specified Western Movies Michael R. Pitts, 2013-01-04 This revised and greatly expanded edition of a well established reference book presents 5105 feature length four reels or more Western films from the early silent era to the present More than 900 new entries are in this edition Each entry has film title release company and year running time color indication cast listing plot synopsis and a brief critical review and other details Not only are Hollywood productions included but the volume also looks at Westerns made abroad as well as frontier epics north woods adventures and nature related productions Many of the films combine genres such as horror and science fiction Westerns The volume includes a list of cowboys and their horses and a screen names cross reference There are more than 100 photographs Michael Reeves Benjamin Halligan, 2003-11-08 Michael Reeves died at age 25 in 1969 between the end of Swinging London and the collapse of the British film industry an apt candidate to represent all that could have been This critical biography claims Reeves as the great lost auteur of British cinema and traces his conception of film back to his childhood and formative experiences Benjamin Halligan examines Reeves films in the context of the times citing The Sorcerers and Witchfinder General as foreshadowing and critiquing the psychedelic and revolutionary zeitgeist Reeves s earlier work on the fringes of the freewheeling European exploitation cinema is also covered with particular emphasis on his Revenge of the Blood Beast Forty Guns West William W. Johnstone, 2010-11-01 When Preacher takes a trip back East the First Mountain Man finds himself in the middle of a bloody showdown Wealthy landowner Elam Parks lies dead at the hands of a gang of local bully boys and there s a 5 000 reward on the head of the man accused of the crime Preacher s the prime suspect but he s ready to pick off the bloodthirsty bounty hunters who are after him one by one Forty Guns West/ Preacher's Peace William W. Johnstone, 2006-11-01 Back East for a reunion with his aging parents Preacher gets into a fight with a pack of city bullies and must high tail it back West with an angry posse in hot pursuit and Preacher left abandoned and half dead after a grizzly attack must rely on his wits to survive The Cinematography of Roger Corman Pawel Aleksandrowicz, 2016-09-23 Roger Corman is an ambiguous artistic figure On the one hand he is notorious for shooting and producing his films quickly cheaply and with blatant disregard for safety measures which together with his ability to issue a dozen new films every year and his impressive filmography have earned him the titles of shlockmeister and the King of the B s among film journalists On the other hand he became the youngest American director to be given a film retrospective at the prestigious Cin mat que Fran aise in Paris one of his directorial efforts House of Usher was selected for preservation in the National Film Registry by the Library of Congress and the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences awarded him with an Academy Honorary Award for his rich engendering of films and filmmakers This book investigates this duality and explores whether Corman is indeed a shlockmeister or an artist whose works are worthy of the highest cinema awards The scope of analysis is limited to his directorial efforts only still encompassing 50 features excluding the 400 films he produced The methodology adopted here is based on the auteur theory in its structuralist version by Geoffrey Nowell Smith and Peter Wollen and focuses on three areas of interest work ethic personal elements in the films personal control over and commitment to the production process outside direction themes topics and concerns common for many of the films regardless of the genre and style recurring stylistic motifs and elements in the camerawork editing and framing

Film Composers in America Clifford McCarty, 2000 Film Composers in America is a landmark in the history of film Here renowned film scholar Clifford McCarty has attempted to identify every known composer who wrote background musical scores for films in the United States between 1911 and 1970 With information on roughly 20 000 films the book is an essential tool for serious students of film and a treasure trove for film fans It spans all types of American films from features shorts cartoons and documentaries to nontheatrical works avant garde films and even trailers Meticulously researched over 45 years the book documents the work of more than 1 500 composers from Robert Abramson to Josiah Zuro including the first to score an American film Walter C Simon It includes not only Hollywood professionals but also many composers of concert music as well as popular music and other genres whose cinematic work has never before been fully catalogued The book also features an index that lets readers quickly find the composer for any American film through 1970 To recover this history much of which was lost or never recorded McCarty corresponded with or interviewed hundreds of composers arrangers orchestrators musical directors and music librarians He also conducted extensive research in the archives of the seven largest film studios Columbia MGM Paramount RKO 20th Century Fox Universal and Warner Bros and wherever possible he based his findings on the most reliable evidence that of the manuscript scores and cue sheets as opposed to less accurate screen credits The result is the definitive guide to the composers and musical scores for the first 60 years of American film

A Short History of Film Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2013-02-15 A Short History of Film Second Edition provides a concise and accurate overview of the history of world cinema detailing the major movements directors studios and genres from 1896 through 2012 Accompanied by more than 250 rare color and black and white stills including many from recent films the new edition is unmatched in its panoramic view conveying a sense of cinema s sweep in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries as it is practiced in the United States and around the world Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn

Audrey Foster present new and amended coverage of the industry in addition to updating the birth and death dates and final works of notable directors Their expanded focus on key films brings the book firmly into the digital era and chronicles the death of film as a production medium The book takes readers through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day It details significant periods in world cinema including the early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s Attention is given to small independent efforts in developing nations and the more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States the significant filmmakers of all nations and the effects of censorship and regulation on production everywhere In addition the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Engaging and accessible this is the best one stop source for the history of world film available for students teachers and general audiences alike

A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century

A Short History of Film, Fourth Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2025-10-14 This updated and expanded edition of A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements directors studios and genres from the 1880s to the present Succinct yet comprehensive with more than 250 rare stills and illustrations it brings readers face to face with many of the key players and films that have shaped the industry Beginning with the precursors of moving pictures Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day They detail significant periods in world cinema including the creation of early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s They also highlight independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States Along the way the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Compact and easily readable this is a vital history of international cinema is a one stop resource for students teachers and general readers alike

Wild Beyond Belief! Brian Albright, 2015-01-27 Exploitation filmmakers played a significant role in revolutionizing American cinema during the 1960s and early 1970s churning out a string of independent Westerns biker films nudie cuties and horror flicks in record times and often on shoestring budgets With titles like Horror of the Blood Monsters Cycle Savages and The Incredible 2 Headed Transplant these films pushed the boundaries of acceptable on screen violence and nudity and kept the American theater industry afloat as several major studios teetered on the brink of financial collapse This work tells the story of that other Hollywood through interviews with 16 directors performers screenwriters and stuntmen who helped bring these zero budget films to the screen against incredible odds The interviews give insights into exploitation filmmaking from the perspectives of pioneering directors Al Adamson and Jack Hill actors Jenifer Bishop and Robert Dix and stuntmen Gary Kent and Gary Littlejohn and others The work includes more than 50 photographs including many rare behind the scenes images of the filmmakers on set Gone with the Glory Brian Steel Wills,2011-10-16 From Birth of a Nation to Cold Mountain hundreds of directors actors and screenwriters have used the Civil War to create compelling cinema However each generation of moviemakers has resolved the tug of war between entertainment value and historical accuracy differently Historian Brian Steel Wills takes readers on a journey through the portrayal of the war in film exploring what Hollywood got right and wrong how the films influenced each other and ultimately how the movies reflect America s changing understandings of the conflict and of the nation Patterns of Bias in Hollywood Movies John W. Cones,2012 It s pretty broadly recognized that Hollywood movies contain patterns of bias but it s not just people of color or women who are hurt by this Many groups within America s multicultural society have complained over the years about negative and stereotypical portrayals of their own group members in motion pictures produced or released through the Hollywood based studios Yet as an expert on the U S film industry points out such complaints have had little impact on consistent patterns of bias in movies This book takes a broader look at the nature of negative and stereotypical movie portrayals and tracks patterns of such one sided depictions over a longer period time As a result the patterns of bias and the source the problem become more clear The problem appears be that most of the people who have green light authority in the U S film industry for either the production and or distribution of a motion picture share a common ethnic religious cultural background Thus the stories of their cohort and those of all other ethnic religious and or cultural groups whose members seldom achieve positions of power Hollywood are being filtered through the cultural sensibilities of a single group John Cones suggests that the solution could lie in increasing diversity at the highest levels in the U S film industry This work grew out of the observed frustration of film industry critics who have pointed out examples of bias and stereotyping in specific movies over the years only to be rebuffed by the simplistic studio arguments that such films reflect the real world and that moviegoers vote with their pocket books It can be shown that there is a consistent pattern to the choices Hollywood studio executives make with respect to the movies produced and released and the specific content of those movies and it becomes obvious that Hollywood is selectively portraying reality Movie goers only have limited options among all of the possibilities that could be portrayed on the silver screen This book differs from other studies touching on bias in motion pictures Most such books focus on the treatment of a single ethnic religious cultural racial or other readily identifiable interest group but this study attempts to provide an overview and to identify patterns over time When the patterns of bias in motion picture content are sufficiently demonstrated and documented it becomes easier to identify the source of the bias and to explain why such bias exists The Psychotronic Video Guide To Film Michael Weldon,1996 The bible of B movies is back and better than ever From Abby to Zontar this book covers more than 9 000 amazing movies from the turn of the century right up to today s Golden Age of Video all described with Michael Weldon s dry wit More than 450 rare and wonderful illustrations round out thie treasure trove of cinematic lore an essential reference for every bad film fan Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2017 Harris M. Lentz III,2018-05-14 The entertainment world lost many notable talents in 2017 including iconic character actor Harry Dean Stanton comedians Jerry Lewis and Dick Gregory country singer Glen Campbell playwright Sam Shepard and actor singer Jim Nabors Obituaries of actors filmmakers musicians producers dancers composers writers animals and others associated with the performing arts who died in 2017 are included Date place and cause of death are provided for each along with a career recap and a photograph Filmographies are given for film and television performers

The American Western A Complete Film Guide Terry Rowan,2012-11-18 A comprehensive film guide featuring films and television shows of the great American western The stories of the men and women who tamed the old West Also featuring actors and directors who made these films possible American International Pictures Rob Craig,2019-02-15 American International Pictures was in many ways the missing link between big budget Hollywood studios poverty row B movie factories and low rent exploitation movie distributors AIP first targeted teen audiences with science fiction horror and fantasy but soon grew to encompass many genres and demographics at times it was indistinguishable from many of the major studios From Abby to Zontar this filmography lists more than 800 feature films television series and TV specials by AIP and its partners and subsidiaries Special attention is given to American International Television the TV arm of AIP and an appendix lists the complete AITV catalog The author also discusses films produced by founders James H Nicholson and Samuel Z Arkoff after they left the company Radio Speakers Jim Cox,2024-10-17 In the days before television radio was the constant voice in American life When radio spoke America listened especially to the men and women who spoke directly to their unseen audience Sometimes formal sometimes as familiar as the friend next door their presence filled the airwaves announcers newscasters sportscasters showbiz reporters advice consultants emcees and breakfast chatterboxes These radio personalities became as popular and familiar as the most public faces of the time Here among profiles of more than 1100 radio speakers are famous names like George Ansbro Red Barber H V Kaltenborn Dorothy Kilgallen Edward R Murrow Louella Parsons Walter Winchell and more Also amply represented are hundreds of lesser known individuals who left indelible auditory impressions Whether their fame was forever or fleeting all were a part of the American voice during the grand epoch of network radio
