Extremely Violent Societies Christian Gerlach, 2010-10-14 In this groundbreaking book Christian Gerlach traces the social roots of the extraordinary processes of human destruction involved in mass violence throughout the twentieth century He argues that terms such as genocide and ethnic cleansing are too narrow to explain the diverse motives and interests that cause violence to spread in varying forms and intensities From killings and expulsions to enforced hunger collective rape strategic bombing forced labour and imprisonment he explores

what happened before during and after periods of widespread bloodshed in countries such as Armenia Indonesia Bangladesh Nazi occupied Greece and in anti guerilla wars worldwide in order to highlight the crucial role of socio economic pressures in the generation of group conflicts By focussing on why so many different people participated in or supported mass violence and why different groups were victimized he offers us a new way of understanding one of the most disturbing phenomena of our times      Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 53, 1967 ,      Naval Training Bulletin ,1966
