No Show of Remorse David J. Walker, 2016-02-09 Chicago private eye Mal Foley was a lawyer once Then he disobeyed a court order requiring him to reveal a client's role in a shootout that left three people dead one of them a cop and his law license was revoked Now years removed from that fateful day Mal is filing a petition to get his license reinstated It quickly becomes a problem however as Mal is expected to express remorse for his misconduct in order to satisfy the court something he steadfastly refuses to do In fact he would withdraw the petition if people would only stop trying to frighten him into doing just that Anonymous notes turn into death threats then into savage beatings and finally into murder It seems no one wants Mal's petition to lead to a hearing where testimony might reveal what really led to the shooting so many years ago The person with the most to lose should the truth come out seems to be Jimmy Coletta a second cop shot that night Coletta survived but has spent his life since in a wheelchair Whatever part he played in the shootout he seems a good man now spending his life helping minority kids who have disabilities Mal doesn't want to bring Jimmy down but soon an innocent man's life depends on Mal pressing ahead with his petition no matter who gets destroyed in the process Set in Chicago No Show of Remorse is a startling novel about crime corruption and their devastating consequences

All the Dead Fathers David J.
