Early European art was a consuming interest of both Robert Lehman and his father Philip Lehman an interest reflected in the remarkable number and quality of drawings they owned from the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries In addition to an important group of early German drawings the collection includes a Saint Paul from a series associated with Jan van Eyck and the famous Scupstoel from the circle of Rogier van der Weyden the only design for a decorative sculpture to survive from the fifteenth century The great artists of the seventeenth century Peter Paul Rubens Jacob Jordaens Claude Lorrain and Rembrandt among them are also represented Rembrandt by seven drawings including the large study of Leonardo s Last Supper that would stay in his mind all through his career Drawings by Antoine Watteau Jean Honor Fragonard Gabriel de Saint Aubin Thomas Gainsborough Paul Sandby and George Romney are among the many from eighteenth century France and England The volume discusses all 153 drawings at length placing each in its art historical setting and complementing the discussion with comparative illustrations of related works This e book on the MetPublications website is also accompanied by links to related works and under the Additional resourcestab are links to Met works of art and Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History essays and timelines viewed May 1 2014 Flanders in the Fifteenth Century Detroit Institute of Arts,1960

Gunn,A. Janse,2006 European and English courtly culture and history reappraised through the prism of the court as theatre In the past half century court history has lost the air of frivolity that once relegated it to the margins of serious historical study and has rightfully taken a central part in the study of European states and societies in the age of personal monarchy Yet it has been approached from so many different angles and appropriated to so many different models that it can be hard to put all our new understandings together to achieve a proper perspective on the functions of the court as a whole This collection of essays uses the idea of the court as a stage for social and political interaction to re integrate different styles of court history focusing on courts in England and the Low Countries from the age of Richard II and Albert of Bavaria to that of Elizabeth I and Philip II Themes studied include the relationship between court politics and cultural change the social and political functions of court office holding the military judicial and propagandist roles of the court the economic relationships between courts and cities and the wider social and political significance of court rituals and traditions
