Flaubert and the Gift of Speech Stirling Haig, 2009-05-07 This is the first book length study of Flaubert's use of dialogue an important but neglected component of his fictional texts Professor Haig's starting point is Sartre's observation that Flaubert does not believe that we speak we are spoken Dialogue in Flaubert does not attempt to represent an individual style but to circumscribe a larger phenomenon of language Speech defines man both in the sense that it describes him as a set of human characteristics and inscribes him within a system of social values The author explores the development of Flaubert's use of dialogue in Madame Bovary L'Education Sentimentale both versions and Bouvard et Pécuchet Flaubert Timothy Unwin, 2004-11-18 This volume brings together a series of essays by acknowledged experts on Flaubert It offers a coherent overview of the writer's work and critical legacy and provides insights into the very latest scholarly thinking While a central place is given to Flaubert's most widely read texts attention is also paid to key areas of the corpus that have tended to be overlooked Close textual analyses are accompanied by discussion of broader theoretical issues and by a consideration of Flaubert's place in the wider traditions that he both inherited and influenced These essays provide not only a robust critical framework for readers of Flaubert but also a fuller understanding of why he continues to exert such a powerful influence on literature and literary studies today A concluding essay by the prize winning author Mario Vargas Llosa examines Flaubert's legacy from the point of view of the modern novelist Literature and Material Culture from Balzac to Proust Janell Watson, 2000-01-13 This book addresses the issues of collecting consuming classifying and describing the curiosities antiques and objets d'art that proliferated in French literary texts during the last decades of the nineteenth century After Balzac made such issues significant in canonical literature the Goncourt brothers Huysmans Mallarmé and Maupassant celebrated their golden age Flaubert and Zola scorned them Rachilde and Lorrain perverted them Proust commemorated their last moments of glory Focusing on the bibelot the modern French term for knick knack curiosity or other collectible Janell Watson shows how the sudden prominence given to curiosities and collecting in nineteenth century literature signals a massive change in attitudes to the world of goods which in turn restructured the literary text according to the practical logic of daily life calling into question established scholarly notions of order Her study makes an important contribution to the literary history of material culture Proust, the Body and Literary Form Michael R. Finn, 1999-03-25 This 1999 study examines the connections between Proust's fin de siècle nervousness and his apprehensions regarding literary form Michael Finn shows that Proust's anxieties both about bodily weakness and about novel writing were fed by a set of intriguing psychological and medical texts and were mirrored in the nerve based afflictions of earlier writers including Flaubert Baudelaire Nerval and the Goncourt brothers Finn argues that once Proust cast off his concerns about being a nervous weakling he was freed to poke fun both at the supposed purity of the novel form Hysteria as a figure and as a theme becomes a key to the Proustian narrative and a certain kind of wordless bodily copying of gesture and event is revealed to be at the heart of a writing technique which undermines many of the conventions of fiction      Negotiating the New in the French Novel Teresa Bridgeman, 2005-08-16 In Negotiating the New in the French Novel Teresa Bridgeman applies insights from pragmatic theory to the French novel in order to examine its discourse conventions Focussing on texts by some of the greatest and most innovative French novelists Diderot Balzac Flaubert Zola Celine Sarraute and Perec Bridgeman analyses how these authors established their own conventions challenged reader expectations and drew conventions from other literary and non literary forms Negotiating the New in the French Novel shows the development of changing perceptions of genre author and reader This book will make fascinating reading for students of French literature particularly of the nineteenth century novel students of Stylistics and of Narratology

The Colonial Comedy: Imperialism in the French Realist Novel Jennifer Yee, 2016-09-01 Nineteenth century French Realism focuses on metropolitan France with Paris as its undisputed heart Through Jennifer Yee's close reading of the great novelists of the French realist and naturalist canon Balzac Flaubert Zola Maupassant The Colonial Comedy reveals that the colonies play a role at a distance even in the most apparently metropolitan texts In what Edward Said called geographical notations of race and imperialism the presence of the colonies off stage is apparent as imported objects colonial merchandise and individuals whose colonial experience is transformative Indeed the realist novel registers the presence of the emerging global world system through networks of importation financial speculation and immigration as well as direct colonial violence and power structures The literature of the century responds to the last decades of French slavery and direct colonialism notably in Algeria but also economic imperialism and the extension of French influence elsewhere Far from imperialist triumphalism in the realist novel exotic objects are portrayed as fake or mass produced for the growing bourgeois market while economic imperialism is associated with fraud and manipulation The deliberate contrast of colonialism and exoticism within the metropolitan novel and ironic distancing of colonial narratives reveal the realist mode to be capable of questioning its own epistemological basis The Colonial Comedy argues for the existence in the nineteenth century of a Critical Orientalism characterized by critique of its own discursive foundations Using the tools of literary analysis within a materialist approach The Colonial Comedy opens up the domestic Paris Provinces axis to signifying chains pointing towards the colonial space Nathalie Sarraute, Fiction and Theory Ann Jefferson,2000-07-03 Nathalie Sarraute 1900 99 is regarded as one of the major French novelists of the twentieth century Initially hailed as a leading theorist and exemplar of the nouveau roman she has come to be regarded as an important author in her own right with her own distinctive concerns In this major 2000 study of Sarraute the first in English since her death Ann Jefferson offers a fresh perspective on Sarraute s entire oeuvre her novels her outstanding autobiography Enfance and her influential critical writings by focusing on the crucial issue of difference which emerges as one of her central preoccupations Drawing on a variety of critical approaches Jefferson explores Sarraute s fundamental ambivalence to differences of various kinds including questions of gender and genre She argues that difference is simultaneously asserted and denied in Sarraute s work and that the notion of difference so often celebrated by other writers and thinkers is shown in Sarraute s work to be inseparable from ambiguity and anxiety Flaubert's Tentation Mary Orr,2008-11-13 This is the first comprehensive study in English of Flaubert s least well known masterpiece the final version of his Tentation de saint Antoine 1874 By assuming no prior knowledge of the work its versions debates or contexts Mary Orr opens up new readings of the seven tableaux which comprise it and new ways of interpreting the whole Newcomers and specialists are therefore invited to contemplate afresh this central work in Flaubert s oeuvre and in nineteenth century French studies For specialists in nineteenth century French literature and in Flaubert studies this book challenges received critical wisdom on a number of fronts Flaubert s realism anti clericalism and orientalism are all remapped through the text s unlikely protagonist visionary speaking to the religious and scientific controversies of nineteenth century France BOOK JACKET System and Writing in the Philosophy of Jacques Derrida Christopher Johnson,1993-04-15 This is an important new critical analysis of Derrida s theory of writing based on close readings of key texts It reveals a dimension of Derrida s thinking that has been neglected in favor of those deconstructionist clichés favored by much recent literary criticism Christopher Johnson highlights the special character of Derrida s philosophy that comes from his contact with contemporary natural science and with systems theory This study casts new light on an exacting set of intellectual issues facing philosophy and critical theory today Narration and Description in the French Realist Novel James H. Reid,2006-11-02 This book demonstrates instead the writers use of irony and allegory in struggling against the deceitfulness of their own texts Politics and Narratives of Birth Carol A. Mossman,1993-04 This book is a feminist analysis which combines a psychoanalytic perspective on catastrophic birth with the politics of reproduction in the emergent democracy of nineteenth century France It focuses on three major thinkers whose personal relation to origins is problematic Rousseau

Constant and Stendhal and also includes a broad reading of the nineteenth century novel within the frame of pathological generation giving special attention to works by Michelet and Zola Professor Mossman identifies important areas of interaction between production and reproduction at the level of aesthetic form and between private birth related discourse and the ideology of the birth of democracy Within the context of the collapse of ancien regime France the nascent ideology of motherhood collides with modes of discourse that invade and colonize the maternal body generating a considerable burden of anxiety expressed in the nineteenth century French novel
