David Leon Higdon

Flavia Weekly 2002 Calendar:

A Calendar of the Letters of Willa Cather Willa Cather, 2002-01-01 An infamous clause in Willa Cather's will forbidding publication of her letters and other papers has long caused consternation among Cather scholars. For Cather a complex and private person who seldom made revelatory public pronouncements, personal letters provide or would provide an especially valuable key to understanding. But because of the terms of her will that key is not readily available. Cather's letters will not come into public domain until the year 2017. Until then even quotation let alone publication in full is prohibited. Janis P. Stout has gathered over eighteen hundred of Cather's letters, all the letters currently known to be available, and provides a brief summary of each as well as a biographical directory identifying correspondents and a multisection index of the widely scattered letters organized by location, by correspondent, and by names and titles mentioned. This book will be an essential resource for Cather scholars. 2002 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2011-07-11 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences (IBOHS) is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times. The works are arranged systematically according to period, region, or historical discipline, and within this classification alphabetically. The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors. The Autocar, 1967

In a Fast Coach with a Pretty Woman Gloria Sybil Gross, 2002 ECLAC Notes, 2004 Wandering into Brave New World David Leon Higdon, 2013-10-01 Wandering into Brave New World explores the historical contexts and contemporary sources of Aldous Huxley's 1932 novel which seventy years after its initial publication remains the best known and most discussed dystopian work of the twentieth century. This new study addresses a number of questions which still remain open: Did his round the world trip in 1925-1926 provide material for the novel? Did India's caste system contribute to the novel's human levels? Is there an overarching pattern to the names of the novel's characters? Has the role of Hollywood in the novel been underestimated? Is Lenina Crowne a representative 1920s flapper? Did Huxley have knowledge of and sources for his Indian reservation characters and scenes quite independent of, and more accurate than those of D. H. Lawrence's writings? Did Huxley's visit to Borneo contribute anything to the novel? New research allows substantive answers and even explains why Huxley linked such figures as Henry Ford and Sigmund Freud. It also shows how the novel overcomes its intense grounding in 1920s political turmoil to escape into the timelessness of dystopian fiction. Family Law Flavia Agnes, 2011-02-17 Family law in India has a complex legal structure where different religious communities are guided by their own personal laws, each of which historically evolved under various social, religious, political, and legal influences. In two comprehensive and lucid volumes, Flavia Agnes, a leading activist and advocate in the area, examines family law in the light of social realities, contemporary rights discourse, and the idea of justice. What is unique in these volumes is that the ground-level litigation practices around women's rights are interwoven with the critical analyses of the statutory provisions. Relying extensively upon case law Volume 2 examines the litigation around the validity of marriage and procedures for dissolving it the contemporary debates around issues such as child marriages NRI marriages and registration of marriages the framework of law on the issues of maintenance matrimonial residence and custody and guardianship of children and whether considering the procedural aspects of matrimonial law and the increased powers of the family courts gender justice concerns are being adequately addressed The volume also emphasizes that it is necessary and possible for the law to fairly reflect individual and social contingencies at the ground level

Gardeners of Identity Pedro J. Oiarzabal, 2009 Examines the history and development of Basque communities in the San Francisco Bay Area and the institutions they have created Includes statistics on Bay Area Basque associations
