Edward Weston Color Photography:

Edward Weston Edward Weston, 1986 Presents thirty two color images chosen from approximately sixty transparencies produced by photographer Edward Weston between 1946 and 1948 near the end of his career and includes essays that discuss his relationship with the Eastman Kodak Company in the advent of color film and Weston's original 1953 essay Color as Form Edward Weston Mark Haworth-Booth, Edward Weston, 1977 Edward, Cole, Kim Weston Thomas Buchsteiner, Edward Weston, 1995 Three generations of American photography by a family that like no other has influenced the history of international photography the photographic scene around the world and its technical perfection Edward Weston the father of Cole and the grand father of Kim has become a legend as a photographer In the early twenties he had already created a sensation with his soft clay colored studies whose artistic subject matter reminds one of the Photo Secession founded by Alfred Stieglitz in 1902 Edward Weston's purist studies of bodies of landscapes of fruit vegetables and other commonplace things propagate the pure unmanipulated photograph with a tendency towards abstraction Joint experiments with the new developments in color photography helped Cole Weston to realize quickly that color afforded him new lighting possibilities It gave him the possibility to create his own identity and to step out of his father's black and white shadow Cole Weston perfected his work to such an extent that today he is known as a pioneer in the field of artistic color photography Kim Weston has broken with the Weston tradition of objectivity His studio work is always staged and recalls a style characteristic of the surrealists in the twenties and the thirties The black and white scenarios have an allegorical character they comment on the human society and the rat race of modern times so that they almost form an antithesis to the landscape photography of his father Edward Weston Edward Weston, Merle Armitage, Donald Bear, 1947 Edward Weston on Photography Edward Weston, 1983 Edward Weston Edward Weston, Charis Wilson, 1993 Photography Mary Warner Marien, 2006 Each of the eight chapters takes a period of up to forty years and examines the medium through the lenses of art science social science travel war fashion the mass media and individual practitioners Back Cover
