the greatest need to hear from you Don't leave them wondering about your lack of concern Begin your letter or note with a straightforward comment about your feelings your sadness your shock your sorrow or your concern Mention something positive you remember about the individual or if you did not know him or her personally recall something you've heard others say Let the reader know that you understand the extent of the loss or the painful situation in the case of a misfortune But do show sensitivity Avoid adding gruesome details or increasing the pain If possible and if you're sincere offer to help in some specific way Be brief You don't need to go into all the details of the situation how you heard the news or what so and so told you Your caring concern in I am so sorry speaks volumes Close with a comforting phrase a final thought that reflects your concern and is appropriate to your relationship with the person Make your words genuine and personal as if you were talking face to face This is not a task that you should delegate to someone else Use your personal stationery or card Typically you should write the note by hand But if you're writing to a business colleague or client a typed letter is acceptable depending on the closeness of the association If you'd like to make the sympathy letter writing process even easier we can help even more If you still can't find the right words to express comfort try our professionally written package of sympathy letters and notes You'll find sample sympathy letters for both personal and business situations Personal Sympathy and Business Sympathy Letters Death of a child Death of a parent Death of a spouse Death of other relatives Miscarriage Death of pet Personal failures Disaster loss of home Disaster loss of business Business failure Financial ruin Loss of job friend Loss of job coworker Get well soon Terminal illness friend Terminal illness acquaintance Wedding cancelled Divorce to parents of those getting divorce Divorce to friend or relative getting divorce Criminal conviction Crime victim
