(N.Y.),1912 Magic Albert Allis Hopkins,1901 The Development of Scenic Art and Stage Machinery New York Public Library,1920 The Composition of Sense in Gertrude Stein's Landscape Writing Linda Voris,2016-10-12 This book offers a bold critical method for reading Gertrude Stein s work on its own terms by forgoing conventional explanation and adopting Stein s radical approach to meaning and knowledge Inspired by the immanence of landscape both of Provence where she travelled in the 1920s and the spatial relations of landscape painting Stein presents a new model of meaning whereby making sense is an activity distributed in a text and across successive texts From love poetry to plays and portraiture Linda Voris offers close readings of Stein s most anthologized and less known writing in a case study of a new method of interpretation By practicing Stein s innovative means of making sense Voris reveals the excitement of her discoveries and the startling implications for knowledge identity and intimacy Special Effects on the Screen Martin Lefebvre,Marc Furstenau,2025-10-01 Since the very first days of cinema audiences have marveled at the special effects imagery presented on movie screens While long relegated to the margins of film studies special effects have recently become the object of a burgeoning field of scholarship With the emergence of a digital cinema and the development of computerized visual effects film theorists and historians have been reconsidering the traditional accounts of cinematic representation recognising the important role of special effects Understood as a constituent part of the cinema special effects are a major technical but also aesthetic component of filmmaking and an important part of the experience for the audience In this volume new directions are charted for the exploration of this indispensable aspect of the cinematic experience Each of the essays in this collection offers new insight into the theoretical and historical study of special effects The contributors address the many aspects of special effects from a variety of perspectives considering them as a conceptual problem recounting the history of specific special effects techniques and analysing notable effects films The Effects of Creative Drama on Person Perception Mary Elin Sommers Wright,1972 Virtual Reality Tatjana Crossley,2025-09-30 This book investigates how immersive environments across architecture art and media shape spatial perception cultural identity and the construction of reality It offers a spatial psychoanalytical reading of virtual reality VR examining how architecture and representation engage with the body sensorial experience and subjectivity Redefining VR as an experiential and spatial condition rather than simply a digital construct the book traces its lineage from ancient fresco rooms to contemporary digital landscapes Grounded in theoretical frameworks from psychoanalysis phenomenology and media theory it explores how immersive environments function as extensions of the body and reflect a collective identity Case studies from Pompeii to the Metaverse illustrate how architecture and representation shape our virtual experience Rather than viewing VR as a new phenomenon the book positions it as part of a longer trajectory in design and representation shaped by evolving tools and technologies It argues that the virtual spaces we create and the artifacts we choose to represent encode insights about identity memory and social conditions This book is written for theorists practitioners academics and students of architecture art and design It situates architectural practice within the unfolding discourse on virtuality identity and the cultural implications of space making
