Allusion as Narrative Premise in Brahms's Instrumental Music Jacquelyn E. C. Sholes, 2018-05-24 Who inspired Johannes Brahms in his art of writing music In this book Jacquelyn E C Sholes provides a fresh look at the ways in which Brahms employed musical references to works of earlier composers in his own instrumental music By analyzing newly identified allusions alongside previously known musical references in works such as the B Major Piano Trio the D Major Serenade the First Piano Concerto and the Fourth Symphony among others Sholes demonstrates how a historical reference in one movement of a work seems to resonate meaningfully musically and dramatically with material in other movements in ways not previously recognized She highlights Brahms s ability to weave such references into broad movement spanning narratives arguing that these narratives served as expressive outlets for his complicated sometimes conflicted attitudes toward the material to which he alludes Ultimately Brahms s music reveals both the inspiration and the burden that established masters such as Domenico Scarlatti J S Bach Haydn Mozart Schubert Schumann Wagner and especially Beethoven represented for him as he struggled to emerge with his own artistic voice and to define and secure his unique position in music history

Variations on the Canon Robert Curry, David Gable, Robert Lewis Marshall, 2008. Masterful essays honoring the great pianist and critic Charles Rosen on masterpieces from Bach and Beethoven to Chopin, Verdi, and Stockhausen. Charles Rosen, the pianist and man of letters, is perhaps the single most influential writer on music of the past half century. While Rosen's vast range as a writer and performer is encyclopedic, it has focused particularly on the living canonical repertoire extending from Bach to Boulez. Inspired in its liveliness and variety of critical approaches by Charles Rosen's challenging work, Variations on the Canon offers original essays by some of the world's most eminent musical scholars. Contributors address such issues as style and compositional technique, genre influence, and modeling and reception history, develop insights afforded by close examination of compositional sketches, and consider what language and metaphors might most meaningfully convey insights into music. However diverse the modes of inquiry, each essay sheds new light on the works of those composers posterity has deemed central to the modern Western musical tradition. Contributors: Pierre Boulez, Scott Burnham, Elliott Carter, Robert Curry, Walter Frisch, David Gable, Philip Gossett, Jeffrey Kallberg, Joseph Kerman, Richard Kramer, William Kinderman, Lewis Lockwood, Sir Charles Mackerras, Robert L. Marshall, Robert P. Morgan, Charles Rosen, Julian Rushton, David Schulenberg, László Somfai, Leo Treitler, James Webster, and Robert Winter. Robert Curry is principal of the Conservatorium High School and honorary senior lecturer in the Centre for Medieval Studies, University of Sydney. David Gable is Assistant Professor of Music at Clark Atlanta University. Robert L. Marshall is Louis Frances and Jeffrey Sachar Professor Emeritus of Music at Brandeis University.
