Edward Hopper, 1882-1967 Rolf Günter Renner, Edward Hopper, 1990 Contains samples of the artist's work and commentaries about his life 95 pages Hopper Rolf Günter Renner, 2000 Hopper is simply a bad painter but if he were a better one he would probably not be such a great artist Clement Greenberg The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver Ayala Amir, 2010-07-17 The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver draws on the study of visual arts to illuminate the short stories of noted author Raymond Carver in the broader context of vision and visualization in a literary text Ayala Amir examines Carver's use of the eye of the camera technique Amir uncovers the tensions that structure his visual aesthetics and examines assumptions that govern scholarly discussions of his work relating these matters to the complex nature of photography and to the current visual turn of cultural studies The research uses visual approaches to reflect upon traditional issues of narrative study duration dialogue narration description frame character and meaning Amir shows how Carver's visual aesthetics shapes the meaning of his stories while also challenging accepted notions of the boundaries of the literary

Edward Hopper, 1882-1967, 2002 Edward Hopper 1882-1967 is considered the first significant American painter in 20th century art After decades of patient work Hopper enjoyed a success and popularity that since the 1950s has continually grown In canvas after canvas he painted the loneliness of big city people Many of Hopper's pictures represent views of streets and roads rooftops and abandoned houses depicted in a brilliant light that strangely belies the melancholy mood of the scenes Hopper's paintings are marked by striking juxtapositions of colour and by the clear contours with which the figures are demarcated from their surroundings His extremely precise focus on the theme of modern men and women in the natural and man made environment sometimes lends his pictures a mood of eerie disquiet On the other hand Hopper's renderings of rocky landscapes in warm brown hues or his depictions of the seacoast exude an unusual tranquillity that reveals another more optimistic side of his character Edward Hopper 1882-1967 Rolf Günter Renner, 1993 Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other On the Edge of Human Imagination Michel Thys, 2025-04-30 In this fascinating book Michel Thys explores the limitations of human imagination and symbolization showing the potentially destructive result of a mind that cannot confront reality His wide ranging research takes us into the domain of the unimaginable unthinkable and unspeakable Divided into four parts On the Edge of Human Imagination sees Thys adopt a phenomenological perspective to move through experiences encountered in the analyst's room from depression and psychosis to PTSD Through a dialogue with philosophers such as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Blanchot and Emmanuel Levinas Thys investigates the relationship between fascination identification socio cultural phenomena and aesthetic pleasure Throughout he uses the paintings of Edward Hopper Sophocles Antigone Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Franz Kafka's Metamorphosis and Charlie Chaplin's Modern Times to support his ideas Integrating Freudian Kleinian and Bionian theories he shows the psychic impact of humanity's attempt to balance fear and passion on the edge of the imaginable and the liminality of the search for meaning The book brings together psychoanalytic theory and practice and philosophical anthropology confronting in the end Freud's ideas of the death drive with Sartre's understanding of the desire for being as the main driving force in human existence This book offers an illuminating evaluation of what it means to be human making it an important read for psychoanalysts psychologists and psychotherapists as well as philosophers interested in the intersection between psychoanalytic philosophical and phenomenological thought
