Waldie, Ed Ruscha, 2016-07-12 The renowned artist Ed Ruscha was born in Nebraska grew up in Oklahoma and has lived and worked in Southern California since the late 1950s Beginning in 1956 road trips across the American Southwest furnished a conceptual trove of themes and motifs that he mined throughout his career The everyday landscapes of the West especially as experienced from the automobile gas stations billboards building facades parking lots and long stretches of roadway are the primary motifs of his often deadpan and instantly recognizable paintings and works on paper as well as his influential artist books such as Twentysix Gasoline Stations and All the Buildings on the Sunset Strip His iconic word images declaring Adios Rodeo Wheels over Indian Trails and Honey I Twisted through More Damn Traffic to Get Here further underscore a contemporary Western sensibility Ruscha's interest in what the real West has become and Hollywood's version of it plays out across his oeuvre The cinematic sources of his subject matter can be seen in his silhouette pictures which often appear to be grainy stills from old Hollywood movies They feature images of the contemporary West such as parking lots and swimming pools but also of its historical past covered wagons buffalo teepees and howling coyotes Featuring essays by Karin Breuer and D J Waldie plus a fascinating interview with the artist conducted by Kerry Brougher this stunning catalogue produced in
